FOREWORD

In searching for something new we have been forced to turn to something old enough to be new; we are compelled to agree with the sage who said: "There is nothing new." To find a background, a foundation, on which to build Ole Miss of 1922, we could not thread the mazes of time and seek out that which had not come to pass, but must needs have brushed the dust off the gone, but not forgotten, past, and sought that which might fit in with our institution, as characteristic of its students, its location, its atmosphere. In the heart of the South, our horizon must be directed toward it, as developed from the original efforts of those old Southern gentlemen and those men of colonial days, whose ideas and ambitions first breathed life into the spirit of the South's education, that horizon led us to the colonial background, with its "Marsus" and "Missus," its mansions and carriages. We hope that our thoughts and that our results shall so be accepted by our readers that these ideas shall become a part and a characteristic of Ole Miss.

And if those things which have been constructed upon this background, our pictures, our records, our poems and jokes; in short, our book, shall equally afford you that enjoyment, that pleasure, that fellowship towards your fellow students, which other books of the past and the future have succeeded in doing, and if later when the frost of age transposes your joys from future expectations to memories and reminiscences of your past, your best days, these pages aid in making those hours in which we attempt to recall your happiest days, among your brightest, we shall not have considered our work in vain.

Dull would he be of soul who could pass by
A sight so touching in its majesty."*

OLE MISS

"Here all is beautiful! The rustling Boughs have such a strange, full sound."

*Where physics, wireless and astronomy
Would seek to bring the earth and stars in harmony.*

—Anonymous.

"Where o'er books men of future achievement Bend low their heads, while burns the midnight oil."

Silent, at first but for the noise you make
When on the brazen door your hand you lay
To shut it after you."*

In every hour that passes, O;

"Mac" has always taken a great interest in student work, especially that pertaining to his profession. He will be particularly missed in the literary societies, and has done splendid work for the Mississippian. He leaves us with one of the highest honors, "President of the Graduates."

SIDNEY B. BERRY, B.S., A Φ E, Vice-President Braxton, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"His honors are honors that speak for themselves.
Just look at his record, then judge for yourselves."*

Club '21; Vice-President Phi Sigma '20; Treasurer '19; Treasurer Masonic Club '20; Blackstone Club; Mississippian Board of Control '20-'22; Secretary of Gordon Hall Boarding Club '21-'22; Mississippian Editorial Staff '20-'22; Managerial and Editorial Staff Ole Miss '21; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '21; Council '20; Taylor Medal in English '20; Intercollegiate Debater '21; Class Speaker Commencement of '21.

"Sid," with his quick grin and his keen sarcasm, is known to us all for his happy-go-lucky air, but underneath lies a sympathy for his fellows that amounts to love. His record is more than enviable—a record few have equaled and none surpassed.

ADDIE ELIZABETH McCAIN, B.A., Secretary-Treasurer Greenwood, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"Of noble mind, serene and kind."

Ole Miss Staff '20; Mississippian Staff '20-'22; Greek and Latin Clubs; President of Y. W. C. A. '20; Vice-President of First Year Law Class '21-'22; Blackstone Club; Taylor Medal in Biology '19; "Blues" '20-'21; The Ravens; Secretary and Treasurer of Graduates; B.A. with distinction '20-'21.

The gentle murmur of the tiny stream trickling sweetly o'er its mossy bed, the sweet fragrance of the narcissus, the strength, the innate beauty, the silent majesty of a Grecian column, the purity of the whitest lily is Addie. A student, a worker, a friend, and, more than all, a true woman.

GRADUATES

*"I am a man;
I deem nothing human alien to me."*

University of Paris; French Club; Faculty.

Ole Miss is not only glad to name Prof. Haument among her faculty, but proud that his M.A. will be in her name. It is always an honor for Mississippi to number a man of France among her students.

"A man to be depended upon."

Student Assistant Physics '19-'20-'21-'22; Delegate to Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines '20; American Legion, Treasurer '20; Hermaean.

Arnold not only takes his second university degree, but is a member of the faculty who has been trained by Ole Miss. He has never seemed to mind work and has learned "more than necessary."

DRANE LESTER, B.A., $\Sigma Y, A \Phi E$ Batesville, Miss.

S. B. '20-'21; Vice-President '19; Gordon Hall Board of Control, '21; Taylor Medal in Latin, '21; Bryan Medal '21; Student Instructor in Latin, '22; Rhodes Scholar '22.

Drane leaves us to go to another Oxford, and goes as another to continue to hold up Ole Miss' standards in English schools. His absence will be keenly felt, and a decline in the number of Freshman Latin students would hardly be a surprise.

GRADUATES

ALONZO PHELPS GEORGE, B.S., A Φ E Nitta Yuma, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"A student, an athlete, and a man."

Hermaean; Varsity Football, '18-'19-'20; Secretary "M" Club, '17-'18; President A. A. A. H.; Masonic Club; Treasurer of A. S. B.; Vice-President American Legion, '20-'21; Y. M. C. A. Council, '17-'18; Baseball Manager, '21; Athletic Editor "Ole Miss," '22; Chairman "M" Club Dance Committee, '21.

"Jap" has done so much for Ole Miss that we hardly dare mention one thing, for fear that something more important has been left out. For instance, just look through our athletic section. "'Jap' did it."

M. BECKETT HOWORTH, B.S., A Φ E West Point, Miss.
MEDICINE

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of."

Hermaean, '20-'21-'22; Secretary, '21; National Committeeman of Alpha Phi Epsilon, '21-'22; Editor Hermaean Issue, Mississippian, '21; Ole Miss Engineers, '20-'21; Football Squad, '20-'21-'22; Technician in Biology, '20-'21; Student Assistant in Physics, '20-'21; Track, '20-'21, Manager Track Team, '21-'22; Ole Miss Photographic Editor, '20-'21; Editor-in-Chief Ole Miss, '21-'22; Ole Miss Rhodes Scholarship Candidate, '21; B.S. with distinction, '20-'21.

The student body elected Beckett the lusiest man on the campus, and many who know him best call him a genius. His record at Ole Miss is remarkable both for scholarship and for varied activities. He has a master mind accompanied with an insatiable thirst for endeavor, and great ambition linked with the highest and noblest ideals.

WILBERNE MCNEASE, M.D. Certificate, A T I Indianola, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"Not over serious, not too gay,
But a rare good fellow."*

Red and Blue Club; Crows Nest Club; President Junior Med Class, '20; Medical Certificate with distinction, '21; Medical Club; A. S. B. O., '19-'20; Gerdon Hall Boarding Club, '19-'20; Y. M. C. A. In addition to his literary work, "Mac," aspiring to the title of "Professor," has been teaching the Junior "Meds" what he learned of anatomy, and the majority have found it "too much for one man."

GRADUATES

ROBERT J. FARLEY, B.A., A Φ E, Σ Y Oxford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Red and Blue Club; President of Scribblers, '19; Advertising Manager Mississippian, '17-'18; Ole Miss Staff, '17-'18; Editor-in-chief Ole Miss, '19; President Hermaean, '18; Y. M. C. A. Council, '18-'19; University Club; President Senior Lit., '19; Vice-President A. S. B. O., '19; Secretary Alpha Phi Epsilon, '21-'22; President First Year Law, '21-'22; Scrub Football, '21-'22; Blackstone Club; Hermaean Anniversarian, '21-'22.

"Bob" left us to teach school last year, and is now back again to prepare for the bar. His return is quite an advantage for the literary societies, student publications, and his class.

LUCY ROBINSON SOMERVILLE, B.A., A O II Greenville, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"Sincere and true to her own beliefs,
With a brilliant original mind;
A leader who's fearless and strong and just;
A girl of the highest kind."*

B.A., Randolph-Macon; Staff Mississippian, '21-'22; Historian Junior Law Class, '21; Secretary Marionettes '21; President '22; Blackstone Law Club; The Ravens; Member Student Legislative Council.

Lucy not only proved to the lawyers that a woman can excel in jurisprudence, but that some women have executive ability and leadership. This makes us observe that one doesn't have to be great of body to be great of mind.

THOMAS JEFFERSON TUBB, B.S., A Φ E Amory, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"With his real sharp tongue and his ready wit,
As a lawyer he can't keep from making a hit."*

M. C. A. Cabinet, Treasurer '20-'21; President Masonic Club, '21-'22; A. A. A. H.; Executive Committee Track Fund; Debating Council, '21-'22; Editorial Staff Ole Miss, '20-'21; Board of Control Mississippian, '20-'21; Scrub Football, '17; First Speaker Hermaean Anniversary, '20; Intercollegiate Debater, Collegiate Debater, '21; Cotillion Club, '21; Law Librarian, '21; Ole Miss Board of Control, '22.

Tubb is proof of the old adage, "Every Tubb must stand on its own bottom," and he has shown himself perfectly capable of doing so. He has held the highest positions that the students can give; he takes away two degrees and a wealth of legal learning.

GRADUATES

J. C. HATHORN, B.S., ΣY University, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"He passes his hours among his books;
You find it in his bleary looks."*

Odom Prize, '20; Varsity Baseball, '20-'21; Taylor Medal in Chemistry, '21; Scribblers' Club; American Legion; Mississippian Staff, '22; Secretary-Treasurer Junior Law Class; Student Assistant in History, '21-'22.

"Happy's" election as best student in 1922 leaves no doubt as to his ability and to the fact that he is a worker. He helped us down A. and M. in baseball, and is always mixed up in the important campus happenings.

EDWARD LEE RUSSELL, B.S., $A \Phi E, II K A$ Jackson, Miss.
MEDICINE

"By breeding sharp, by nature confident."

Millsaps College, '16-'17-'19; American Legion; Secretary-Treasurer A. E. F. Club, '21; Reporter, Chaplain, Vice-President Phi Sigma, '20-'21; Y. M. C. A. Council, '20-'21; Cabinet '21-'22; Medical Club; Student Assistant in Anatomy, '21-'22.

Somehow, Lee learned that there was another school than Millsaps, and immediately decided that Ole Miss was a better place from which to receive a "dip." He is assisting in guiding the young anatomists aright.

CHESTER LAMAR SUMNERS, B.A. Marietta, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"A wit that is as dry and as explosive as dynamite."

Football, '17-'19; Basketball, '18-'20; Intercollegiate Debater, '20; Phi Sigma, President, '19-'20; Anniversarian '20; Ole Miss Staff, '20; Masonic Club; B.A. with distinction, '20.

Alert and able, Sumners has been active in every phase of University activities. As a politician or as a pleader he never fails through lack of energy or eloquent speech.

GRADUATES

"Even a single hair casts its shadow."

American Legion; Chemistry Prize, '20; Medical Club; A. and M. College, '14-'15-'16; Pharmacy Assistant.

Mike found that he'd like medicine better than pharmacy, and is remaining with us to see if he can absorb anatomy. Mike's hobby is hunting chestnuts.

"A smiling countenance is no small advantage."

B.A., Hampden Sidney.

Orr came to us from Hampden Sidney and is specializing in work preparatory to becoming a physical instructor. Would that she could send us more like him.

JOHN EDWARD McCALL, LL.B., A Phi E Hattiesburg, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"Whose power shed around him a constant influence."

Secretary American Legion, '20; Chaplain Hermacan, '20; Vice-President Masonic Club, '21; Blackstone Club; Hub City Club; A. E. F. Club; Post Commander American Legion, '21; M. N. C., '14-'15, '15-'16.

"Mac" has ready Irish wit and an imposing manner. He will fill with dignity the high position that life assuredly holds out for him.

GRADUATES

"The hand that follows intellect can achieve."

Y. M. C. A. Council '19; Cabinet '20; Intercollegiate Debating Council, '19-'20; President Blackstone Club, '19; Class Historian, '20; Honor Council, '19; Law Librarian, '19; Hermacan, '19-'20-'21.

Preaching takes up so much of Smith's time that out of classes he is rarely seen at all. A friend to everyone, and a student equal to any.

ANNETTE MEBANE Hickory Flat, Miss.
MEDICINE

"Ever gentle, and so gracious with her learning."

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '19-'21; Mississippian Staff, '19; Ole Miss Staff, '21; M. S. M.; Greek Club; Honor Council; Medical Club; Student Assistant in Biology, '20; Secretary-Treasurer Junior Medical Class; Treasurer A. S. B. O.

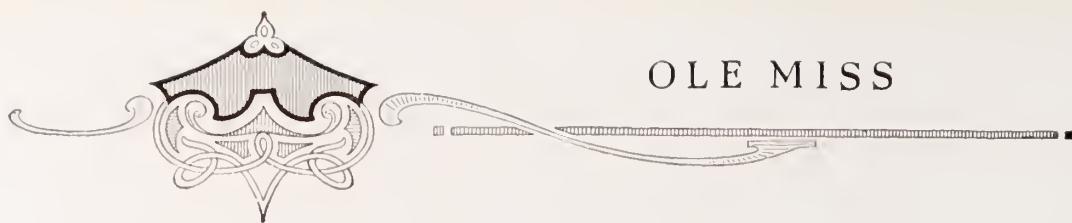

Annette is another co-ed who is successfully braving the test of a Doctor's degree, and is easily proving that woman can accomplish things as easily as man.

*"Shortly his fortunes shall be lifted higher;
True industry doth kindle honour's fire."*

A. and M. College: Medical Club '21-'22

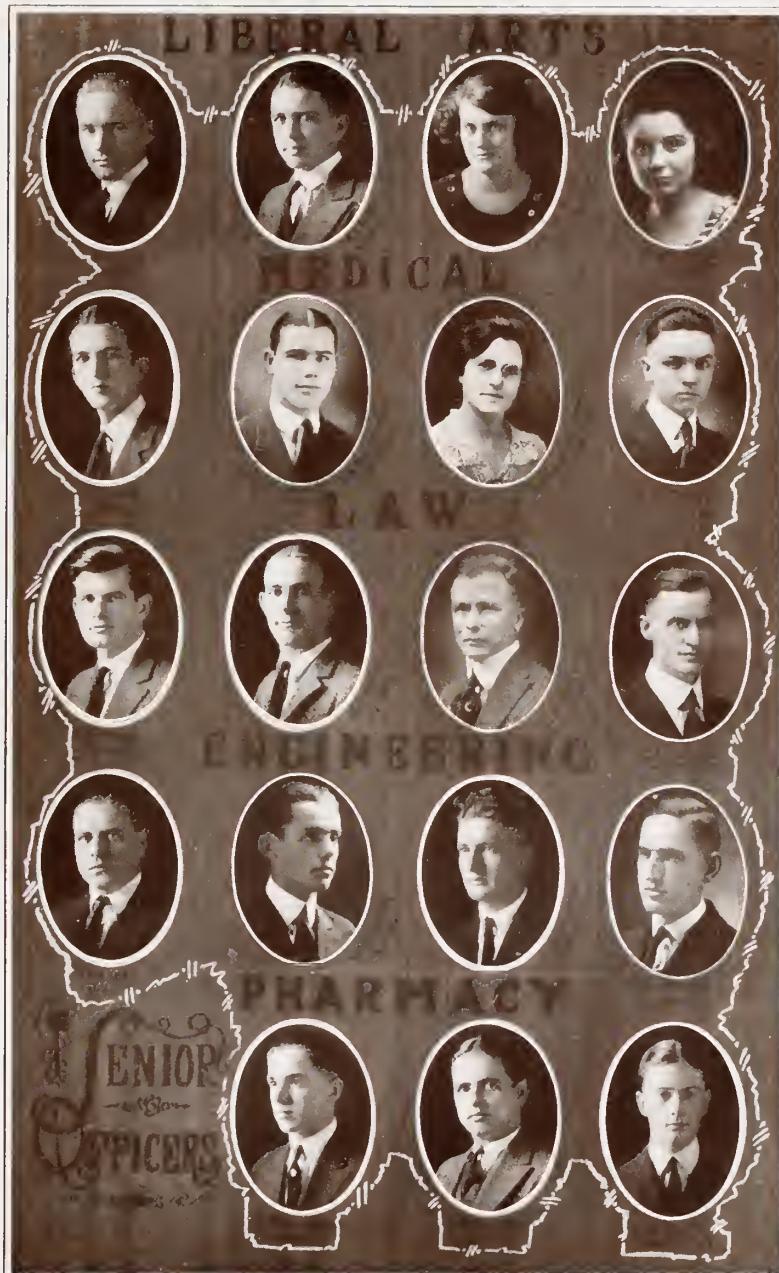

After Pierre received his "Lit" from A. and M., he discovered that no medicine could be learned among the cows and poultry, and so left his home to come to Ole Miss and learn one of the best of professions. We are fortunate in having him again next year.

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

Ole Misses; Taylor Medal in French; Secretary-Treasurer French Club, '21-'22; Varsity Basketball, '19-'20-'21; Vice-President Latin Club; Greek Club; Education Club.

"Min" was not appointed to tame freshmen, but took the place when she came here and has had no opposition. She and "Babe" get them all. A fine student, a good athlete, and a continual source of enjoyment to her friends.

ELIZABETH BRANHAM Spring Hill, Tenn.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"A smile for all, a greeting glad, an amiable, jolly way she had."

Vanderbilt, '17-'18; Blues; The Ravens Club; Senior Class Historian; Greek Club; Latin Club.

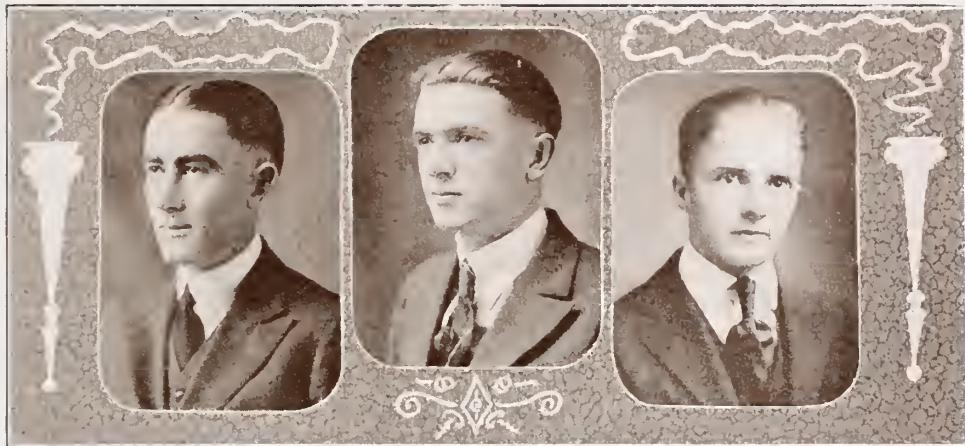

When "Betsy" met one of the students, within the minute she proclaimed, "I am dis-Gus-ted," and has been so ever since. How such a striking personality, such womanly charm, so brilliant a mind and so genial a body could have been assembled in one person, we will never know. One of our leading Oxford students, "Betsy" always excels in her class work.

ALBERT YEATES BROWN, A Φ E Ripley, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Somewhat reserved, steadfast of purpose, rather conservative—that's A. Y."

American Legion; Hermaean; Y. M. C. A. Council, '19-'20, '20-'21; Teachers' Club.

A. Y. has already shown his ability in assuming the responsibility of assistant P. M. He is a quiet worker, but up to the mark.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

LUTHER LESLIE BRYSON, A. Φ. E. Guntown, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"As proper a man as one may see on a summer's day."

Education Club; Latin Club; Hermaean '18-'19-'20; Secretary '20.

Bryson is a man to be depended upon, whether it be in class or student activity. Tennis players find him a hard match.

F. J. BUCHANAN, A. Φ. E. Amory, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"It is not good that man should live alone."

A. & M. C., '17-'18; Hermaean; Y. M. C. A. Council; Ole Miss Staff, '19-'20; Mississippian Staff, '19-'20; Pre-Med. Club; Class Football, '19-'20-'21.

"Buck" left us last year to take up household duties in Oxford, but he has not let this education interfere with his studies.

LOUIS IRVING DAILEY, A. Φ. E. Torrance, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"A lion among ladies is a most dreadful thing."

B. B. B. Club, '18; Y. M. C. A. Council, '20-'21; Mississippian; Hermaean; Treasurer Cotillion Club, '22.

"Tubby," our Beau Brummel from Torrance, studies law, but practices the "fair sex." A staunch exponent of Rockefeller's method of getting rich.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

PHILIP GRANT DAVIDSON, JR., ΣY Greenville, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"He is complete in feature and mind, with all good grace to grace a gentleman."

Varsity Football, '20-'21-'22; Vice-President "M" Club; President Greek Club; Spanish Club; Athletic Editor Mississippian; Scribblers' Club; Dramatic Club; "M" Club Dance Committee; Mississippian Staff, '20-'21, '21-'22.

An untiring worker, but fortunately afflicted by a severe case of "Rixitis." Philip has aided materially in upholding our football standard.

PAUL VERNON DRAUGHN Hattiesburg, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Turn, Fortune! turn thy wheel with frown or smile."

S. P. U., '18-'19, '19-'20; "S" Club; Cotillion Club; Y. M. C. A.; Class Football; Hermacan.

Since Paul was not "found" by any of the campus publications, he decided to edit something himself, and his results with the Third Floor News tend to place him in the genius class.

CLYDE BEAMAN EDWARDS Canton, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"He knows enough who knows how to live and keep his own counsel."

Clyde doesn't try to display his good qualities. One has to know him to appreciate his good worth.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

LUCY CALDWELL ELLIOTT Oxford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"I love her for her smile, her looks, her way of speaking gently."

Mississippi Synodical College, '18-'20.

Always smiling, care-free and happy, we see Lucy. Eternally glad that there is a world to live in, and as glad that she lives in it, heartily disposing of her duties.

Alice May Farley Oxford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"Earth's noblest thing—a woman perfected."

Ole Misses; Greek Club; Latin Club; Teachers' Club.

Though, many times, Alice May becomes the ever-present help in time of trouble, she is utterly unassuming of the faith and love which she so richly deserves. One of the most dependable and satisfying girls in the University.

Eugene Hendrix Garner Baldwyn, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Where duty calleth, he is always found."

Hermaean; Y. M. C. A. Council, '19-'20-'21; Teachers' Club; Cerycian Club; Cotillion Club; Class Football.

Another Sargent S. Prentiss in the making. Hendrix will probably be the man to pick the all-American oratorical team in the near future. He is a man known for his good disposition.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

ROY ALFRED GREGORY Tupelo, Miss.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Great of heart, magnanimous, courtly, courageous."

Mississippi College, '12-'14; U. S. Navy, '18-'19; Superintendent Education, Lee County, '19; Masonic Club, '20-'21.

Gregory gave up his educational work to come to us and take medicine. We predict that he will stand high in his profession.

HERBERT L. HARRIS, K Σ Jackson, Miss.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"If it be a gentleman and a scholar ye seek, ye have found him."

Vice-President of Senior Class, '21-'22; Editorial Staff of Ole Miss, '21-'22; Vice-President A. E. F. Club, '20-'21; President French Club, '21-'22; Recorder of Bird Club, '21-'22; Red and Blue Club; Hermaean; Track, '20-'21; American Legion.

One of the best men that has ever trod the campus. He is at once quiet, likable and studious, and, better than all, he is a regular fellow.

MARY ALICE HATHORN University, Miss.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall, and most divinely fair."

Golden-haired Mary Alice recalls to mind that "sweetness long drawn out" made so much a part of our thoughts by the immortal Milton. A rapid learner and a slow forgetter, a quick sympathizer and a truer friend hard to find.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

G. B. HERRING Madison, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"Of soul sincere, in action faithful and in honor clean."

Hermaean, '17-'18; Y. M. C. A. Council, '19-'20; Student Assistant, '21-'22.

Already selected to assist in the School of Commerce, Herring has quickly shown business-like qualities, and in football his opponents had to get down to business.

MARY RITCHIE HUME University, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"She is good as she is fair, none—none on earth above her!
As pure in thought as angels are: To know her is to love her."*

Vice-President Freshman Class; Taylor Medal in Mathematics, '20; Blues, '19-'20; Historian Junior Class; The Ravens Club.

Someone expressed our thoughts in saying, "I wish that I had that in my life which gives Mary the look in her eyes." She is as pure as the dewdrops on the rosebud, as bright as the bloom.

VIVIAN ANNETTE JOHNSON Rosetta, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"A strong mind, prompted by noble purpose."

Greek Club, '18-'19-'20-'21-'22; Latin Club, '21-'22.

Vivian has endeared herself to all those who have known her during her stay here, and those who will remain after she has gone, as well as those who go with her, will miss her smile and her helpful, attractive way.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"In every deed he had a heart to resolve, a head to understand, and a hand to execute."

Ole Miss Post Commander; American Legion, '19-'20; A. E. F. Club; Member Masonic Club.

A prominent member of our "Ole Miss" American Legion and A. E. F. Jones always has been a leader in student activities. He is the type who goes after it and gets it.

BIRDIE KITCHELL Abbeville, La.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

"Those who know her best love her most."

Treasurer Y. W. C. A., '20-'21; President Y. W. C. A., '21-'22; Greek Club; Legislative Council of Student Government.

A Louisiana maid whose Titian hair calls forth envy in the heart of all girls. Birdie is a friend of whom her friends can truly say, "A friend is God's masterpiece."

LOIS LAMB Courtland, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

Lois may be just a bit whimsical, but we know her to be as true to a friend as the needle to the pole, and as thoughtful of others as some of us are of ourselves.

Joe has always been counted an asset in literary circles. He learned that a bunch of Georgia girls were going to Blue Ridge last summer, and decided that he could get in better work there than in Oxford.

LENA LEMASSON Gulfport, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ARTS

*"She thinks without confusion clearly,

Lena is a firm believer in the doctrine, "Man alone does not excel in books," and has added another argument against it—herself. Honesty, frankness, firmness and faithfulness, with knowledge gained from books, unite to make her a rare type.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER LONG, ΣY Hazlehurst, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"We don't want him any longer;
He is Long enough already."*

Geraldine has always been a winner as one of the co-eds' basketball team, and for unselfishness, friendliness, clear thinking, cleverness and popularity no one could find a better.

JOHN TARBLE MEEK Kosciusko, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"English I love, Math I adore,
But ladies—away with them forevermore."*

Masonic Club; French Club; Hermaean; Band, '19.

Meek would not have been elected most bashful boy if one co-ed could have stuffed the ballot box. How could he keep such late hours and be like that!

DEWEY M. METTS Oxford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Better late than never, but better never late."

Medical Club, '18-'19; Education Club, '21-'22; Masonic Club, '21-'22.

Metts intends to teach after he leaves us, and can be relied on to make the most of his profession. He is a practical man, not the kind to theorize.

The tomorrow's life too late is—live today."*

Secretary and Treasurer Junior Class, '21; Marionettes, '21; '22 Crow's-Nest Club;
Councilor Cotillion Club, '21-'22.

"Ben" is well on the road to success as a theatrical man through his performances with the Marionettes, and he "plays his part" well at Ricks.

NEWTON WEBSTER MILLS Richton, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"Blest with temper, whose unclouded ray

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Our only regret is that we had Margaret with us only two years, for in her we found a real girl—one who struck a happy medium between work and play. Sincere, lovable and capable—according to Dame Rumor, she is quite an authority on the "Jap" situation.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

WILLIAM BURTON POTTS Crawford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"The heroes are not all six feet tall;
Large souls may dwell in bodies small."*

One of those quiet, unobtrusive persons who has slipped through his four years and is slipping out again without most of us knowing him; but those who do know him can speak well of his school work and will hate to lose him.

EMY LOU PRICE Water Valley, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

We predict for Emyle much success in life. She was equally popular with both boys and girls, and always kept several of the former "on her string." A good student, conscientious and true.

Ole Misses; Greek Club; Varsity Basketball, '19-'20; Manager Co-Ed Basketball, '19-'20; Latin Club; Historian of Freshman Class; Secretary-Treasurer Education Club; Executive Council of Student Government.

Behind her camouflage of a quiet, exclusive manner, a protection from the curious public, there is the real Ella. As sincere as a lover, as sweet as the honeyed drop collecting within an exquisite flower, and with a gentle personality which gives one the thrill of a garden landscape.

When we look at Ruth we are carried back to the days of Achilles and Troy, when mighty warriors fought for fair maidens. And instead of blonde or brunette, many of our boys voted her their type of girl.

ANEL MERTON UNGER West Point, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Not to enjoy one's youth when one is young is to imitate the miser who starves beside his treasures."

At the outset the ambition to teach Sophomore English became Unger's ruling passion, and his intense interest in this alone has deprived most of us of the opportunity to see what would have been the results of his efforts in other lines.

R. T. WALKER Magee, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Ye gods, end this college life and make two lovers happy."

Phi Sigma, Secretary '19; Vice-President Medical Class, '19; Glee Club; Education Club.

Walker is an asset to the School of Education and a friend worth having. He has been very much interested in one of the co-eds, and we think—well, read the quotation above. Many a bob-haired co-ed would give a year of her life for hair like R. T.'s, and, more than that, he is as good in his way as it is in its.

MARY HELEN WASSON Kosciusko, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

"Her smile is sweetened by her gravity."

Basketball, '20-'21; Secretary Y. W. C. A., '20-'21; Manager Co-Ed Basketball, '20-'21; Education Club; Marionettes.

It would require a complete positive vocabulary to tell about Mary Helen. Someone said she could cook a nightingale's tongue without scorching it, and she is a regular domestic artist. We frequently see her as most prominent in the Marionettes. No one would expect such a delightful person to know anything of books, but she excels as much in them.

One fellow who doesn't waste his time, or at least you never see him doing it. Waugh's real worth began to be known through his "Cynic's Ban," but, before and since, he has performed creditably his every duty.

JAMES M. WILLIAMS Benoit, Miss.
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

*"Consistency? I never changed my mind,
Which is, and always was, to live at ease."*

Varsity Football, '21-'22; Ole Miss Minstrel, '20-'21.

"Jimmy" came to us from Annapolis, convinced that he didn't like sailing, and we hate to lose him. He thought he could play football, and so came out and showed us he could, instead of telling us what he had done.

PAULINE WILLIAMSON Water Valley, Miss.

JOSEPH DEWEY CLEVELAND Union, Miss.

Carl sets a high mark in his class which any "Med" would find hard to beat. We are sorry that his profession has taken so much of his time away from us.

"Blessings on him who first invented sleep."

Hermaean; Y. M. C. A. Council; American Legion; A. E. F. Club; Medical Club.

We understand that Frashuer hibernates during the summer, as he has to get up for a class now and then during the rest of the year. Why not nickname him "Pul'man"? He intends to make sleeping sickness his specialty.

President Pre-Medical Class, '16; Varsity Baseball, '17, '18; Varsity Football, '18, '19, '22; Senior Prom Committee, '19; Medical Club.

A few years ago "Opp" thought he was through, but now he's back to finish his education—Medical and RICKity. He tells us that he is to specialize in bone-surgery, as he has the head for it. He's a large man, but worth his weight in gold.

*"I care for nobody, no, not I,
If nobody cares for me."*

Medical Club; Phi Sigma; Jara Jara Club, '21.

Arkansas lost a good man when she sent Smith to us. If Arkansas were made like that—well, we'd like to live in Arkansas. We hope that Mississippi will not lose what she has gained.

Phi Sigma, '21; Masonic Club, '21, '22; Medical Club, '21, '22; Track, '20; Class Basketball, '18, '19, '20.

President Blackstone Law Club, '22; Hermaeon, '19-'22; Honor Council Junior Law Class; Y. M. C. A. Council, '21; Secretary Hermaeon; Blackstone Club, '21-'22; Vice-President Hermaeon, '22; Sheriff Practice Court, '22; Intercollegiate Debating Council.

A more courteous lawyer cannot be found. Brewer is a fine student and has made a host of friends with his cordial manner. "The elements so mixed in him that nature might stand up and say to the world, 'This is a man.'"

CLORUS G. BROOKS Lake, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"Not over-serious, not too gay, but a rare good fellow."

Mississippi A. and M., '18-'19; Blackstone Club; Phi Sigma; Scrub Baseball, '21.

Brooks returns to Lake with a thorough knowledge of law and the assurance that he has pursued justice in every case. His community has a right to be proud of his achievement.

SCHOOL OF LAW

J. HOLLIS BROWN Fulton, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"He who would search for pearls must dive below."

Masonic Club; Blackstone Law Club; A. E. F. Club.

To the voters of Itawamba he is known as "Hollis Brown," and they knew him well enough to send him to the Mississippi Legislature. He is faithful and diligent in his work.

S. J. CLENDINNING, A. Φ. E. McComb, Miss.
B.S., LL.B.

"Go forth, thou man of force; the world is all thy own."

President A. S. B., '22; President Y. M. C. A., '22; Mississippian Board of Control, '22; Y. M. C. A. Council '20, Cabinet '21; Secretary Gordon Hall Board of Control, '21; Blackstone Club; Second Speaker Hermaean Anniversary, '19; Freshman Medal of Hermaean Society, '19; Intercollegiate Debater, '21; Internsociety Debater, '21; Historian Sophomore Class, '20; Mississippian Staff, '21; Treasurer Hermaean, '21; American Legion, '19-'22; Masonic Club; Editorial Staff Ole Miss, '21.

With eloquence and force "Pat" won his place as a leader. He has kept it with his cordial friendliness. His capacity for doing many things well is shown by his getting two degrees in four years.

VIVIAN COOK Sumner, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"A cheerful disposition is a fund of ready capital."

Blackstone Law Club, '20-'21-'22; Secretary Junior Law Class; Basketball, '21-'22; Honor Council Junior Law Class.

The opposing counsel will discover that Vivian combines with a gracious courtroom manner a ready wit and a thorough knowledge of law. Her individuality, enthusiasm and sincerity have won for her a host of friends.

SCHOOL OF LAW

WILKES H. DAVIS Pelahatchie, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"I dare do all that may become a man. Who dares do more is none."

Phi Sigma, '20-'21-'22; Vice-President Phi Sigma, '21-'22; Blackstone Club, '21-'22; Critic Blackstone, '21-'22; A. E. F. Club.

If you would select a man of sterling qualities, Davis would be your choice. He denounces injustice with keen sarcasm, regardless of the consequences, and is a speaker of unusual ability.

ERNEST AUSTIN ERWIN Evensville, Tenn.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"He would hide his talents under the bushel of his modesty."

A. E. F. Club; Hermacan Literary Society; American Legion; Blackstone Law Club.

Erwin comes to us from Tennessee, with the zeal for work customary with all Tennesseans. There is dignity in his manner, which makes his words effective before the jury.

MURRAY C. FALKNER, JR. University, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"They say thou art a lawyer in disguise. 'Tis well, I would not suspect it otherwise."

A. E. F. Club; Cotillion Club.

Never worry, never hurry, Jack will get there yet. But Falkner always speaks to the point, argues forcibly, reasons clearly and logically, ruling out irrelevant and immaterial matter.

SCHOOL OF LAW

JOHN SIDNEY FINCH Booneville, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"I am sure care's an enemy of life."

Cumberland University; Member Mississippi Bar; Blackstone Law Club; Phi Sigma; A. E. F. Club.

Finch came to us from Cumberland Law School, and has duplicated here the high record he made there. Where he got his smile we do not know; he came here with it, and has had it ever since.

CARL MANAR HATHORN Columbia, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"The bed has become a place of luxury to me; I would not exchange it for all the thrones in the world."

Hermaean, '19-'20-'21-'22; Blackstone Law Club; Cotillion Club.

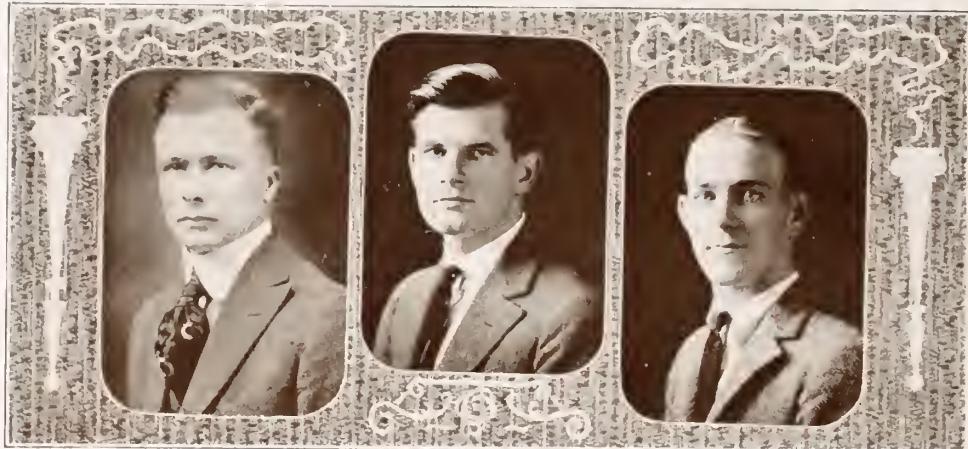

Indifferent in manner, "Judge" surprises his opponents with his ready wit. If he can resist the corner store, he will make a fine lawyer.

SIDNEY EARL MCGEE Chunky, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"A bold, bad man."

Phi Sigma Literary Society; Blackstone Law Club; American Legion; A. E. F. Club; Chaplain of Phi Sigma, '21; Mississippi College, '20.

McGee is the man who would not hurry through life in a day, but slowly and surely accomplishes his bit, smiling as he goes over the rough places.

SCHOOL OF LAW

LEONARD B. MELVIN Ellisville, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"If hot air were music, I would be a whole brass band."

Blackstone Law Club; Masonic Club; Y. M. C. A. Council, '20-'21; Class Football, '20; Class Baseball, '21; Winner Mississippi Pine Land and Planter's Scholarship, '18, '22; Attorney-General Law Club, '20; Secretary Senior Law Class, '21-'22; Parliamentarian Hermaean.

Melvin, possessed with a voice like a preacher, realizes the fact that a lawyer earns his pay by talking. He is conscientious and public-spirited, and will always be among the leaders in his community.

STANFORD EVERETT MORSE, $K\Sigma$ Jackson, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"Moose" is a model student, has never missed a case; he'll have no trouble with the law when the world he starts to face."

Millsaps College, '18-'19-'20; Golf Club, '21-'22; Blackstone Club; President of Senior Law Class, '21-'22; Tennis Club; President E. E. T. Club; Vice-President Jackson Club.

President of the Senior Law Class is a great distinction, but "Moose" has carried it with becoming modesty. A diligent student, he pleads his cases with a thunderous voice and an assurance that comes with mastery of the law.

RICHARD JONES PETTEY, $\Sigma A E$ Greenwood, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"A home, a pipe, a dutiful wife,
His must be a wonderful life."*

Varsity Baseball, '20-'21; "M" Club; Dance Committee, '20-'21; Hermaean; President Cotillion Club, '21-'22; Blackstone Law Club, '20-'21-'22; Vice-President Senior Law Class, '21-'22; Cheer Leader, '21-'22; U. S. Military Academy, '18-'19; University of Virginia, '19-'20; Winner of Popularity Contest, '20-'21; Editorial Staff Ole Miss, '21-'22.

With a smile and gracious manner, "Spcy" has won his way. He is equally at ease on the baseball diamond, the ballroom floor, or before the court, and is loved everywhere.

SCHOOL OF LAW

JOHN URI SIMMONS Bay Springs, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

"Bid me discourse, I will enchant thine ear."

Phi Sigma Literary Society; Mississippian Staff, '18; Blackstone Club.

The eloquence with which "Red" speaks will make a J. P. forget his code. He will convince the public that oratory still exists in Mississippi.

A. B. AMIS Meridian, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"If worry were the only cause of death,
Then would he live forever."*

A jolly good fellow; Amis is thoroughly liked by his fellow-students. A quiet and reserved thinker, yet with his logic his opponents are put to flight.

M. L. ALEXANDER Bay Springs, Miss.
BACHELOR OF LAW

*"And let men so conduct themselves in life,
As to be strangers to defeat."*

Phi Sigma, '21-'22; Vice-President, '21-'22; Blackstone Club, '21-'22; Vice-President, '21-'22.

Very dependable, witty, and likable, Alexander is a friend of everyone who knows him. As a member of the Legislature, he is making good.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

JAMES THOMAS DENTON Oxford, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"Hear ye not the hum of mighty workings?"

Phi Sigma, '19-'20; Engineering Club '19-'20-'21; Secretary '22; Vice-President Engineering Class, '21; Student Assistant in Mathematics, '22.

Denton decided that Senior Engineering left too much spare time, and is assisting in propounding the intricacies of freshman mathematics. Ask him how he likes Lake Providence!

WILL EDWIN DORROH Rena Lara, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"By time and toil we sever what strength and rage could never."

Treasurer Ole Miss Engineers '19; President '20; Vice-President Senior Class, '22.

"W. E." left us for a while to "learn" his profession and has come back to finish studying it. He has displayed his constructive tendencies in successfully engineering his way into the heart of a fair co-ed.

HOWARD CLAY FORD Potts Camp, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"A faultless body and a blameless mind."

Class Football, '19-'20-'21; Class Basketball, '19-'20; Vice-President Ole Miss Engineers, '20; President Engineering Class, '22; Treasurer of A. S. B., '22.

"Henry," as he is best known, is too nice a fellow to be an engineer, as they are seldom "civil." He has a way with him that makes one like him first, last and always.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

WILLIAM EDWARD JOHNSON Cohay, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"He thinks too much; such men are dangerous in their wisdom."

Phi Sigma, '17; Adjutant American Legion, '21; Vice-President Masonic Club, '22; Vice-President A. E. F. Club, '22; Secretary and Treasurer of Engineering Class, '22; President Ole Miss Engineers, '22.

Johnson will make a regular engineer, as he has proved a conscientious student and is a real "shark" in his studies. Structures more amazing than our air castles will hardly be beyond him.

HUGH SOUTHERLAND LEWIS Madison, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"My heart is whole, my fancy free; run on, co-eds, don't bother me."

President Junior Class, '21; Ole Miss Engineers.

It will probably never be explained why the most handsome man in school is making engineering his life work. But if he is as good as he looks, the profession will experience wonderful advances when he leaves us to join its ranks.

RAYMOND E. MABUS Ackerman, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"Cheerfulness and content are famous preservers of good looks."

Hermaean; Treasurer Ole Miss Engineers, '20-'21.

It seems that Mabus is the, if not the only, social lion of his class. But don't think less of him for that; it will come in mighty well when he wants to land the big jobs he intends to.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

GUSTAVE OLIVIER PRADOS Long Beach, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

*"O birds that warble as the day goes by,
Sing sweetly; twice my love hath smiled on me."*

Track, '20; President Ole Miss Engineers, '20-'21; Scrub Football, '20-'21; Class Football, '21; Taylor Medat in Drawing, '21; Hermaean; Mississippian Staff, '21-'22.

We hesitate to mention anything about Prados, as she is so well known already. But if "Gus" is as successful in his profession as he's been in another way—well, we'll worry over someone else's future.

FRANCIS THORNTON THOMPSON Blue Mountain, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

*"Rises early, studies late,
Works all day with books and slate."*

Y. M. C. A.; Ole Miss Engineers; Mississippian Reporter, '20-'21; Historian Senior Class, '22.

"Themp" has given every aspiring member of his class a fight for first place, and has already seen what engineering is like with Uncle Sam in Montana. Ole Miss is glad to claim him.

WILLIE TICER WEBB Iuka, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"Minds that have nothing to confer Find little to perceive."

Phi Sigma, '17, '18; Ole Miss Engineers, '20, '22.

More than one of his fellow students will miss Webb's cheerfulness and his amiable smile. It comes to us, too, that, aside from his engineering accomplishments, he intends to publish a new book of original jokes. We'll take four copies!

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

WILLIAM ENOCH WILSON Batesville, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"Great talkers are never great doers."

Varsity Baseball, '20, '21; Ole Miss Engineers.

Enoch is too good at baseball for wonders to be expected of him in anything else, although no doubt he will be as good at building bridges as he was at piling up scores for us.

WALTER FEATHERSTON WOOLLARD Grenada, Miss.
BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

"A better fellow to walk with down life's highway is seldom found."

Class Football, '20-'21-'22; Ole Miss Engineers, Secretary '21; Secretary-Treasurer Junior Engineering Class, '21; Football Squad, '21; Cyreneans Club, '21; American Legion, '21, '22; A. E. F. Club, '20-'21-'22; French Club, '22.

Walter is too familiar a figure to require our feeble attempt to sum up his good qualities. He is well equipped to place himself at the front as soon as he has the chance to show what he can do.

School of Pharmacy

HILTON H. ALBRITTON McComb, Miss.
PHARMACY

"I have always thought the actions of men the best interpreters of their thoughts."

Y. M. C. A., '21-'22; Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Member Employment Committee, '22; President Senior Pharmacy Class, '22.

"Brit" has been a faithful student in the School of Pharmacy, and will make a great druggist before many generations have passed. His being elected president of his class speaks for his popularity among his fellow students.

SENIOR

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

MILTON RICHARD BARNHILL Brooksville, Miss.
PHARMACY

"As merry as the day is long."

A. and M., '19-'20; Pharmaceutical Association, '20-'21-'22; Cotillion Club.

"Bunny" isn't so little that he can't snore loud enough to keep the neighborhood awake. When he meets chemistry the teacher always fails to call the roll. "Hard Luck," "Bunny."

PHINIS KY BETHANY Shuqualak, Miss.
PHARMACY

"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays."

Pharmaceutical Association; Class Baseball, '20-'21; Class Football, '20, '21.

We all know that "Ky" will be as successful as any of the class. He is well liked by all the students and takes part in all activities. We shall all miss him.

NEWTON BROWN West Blocton, Ala.
PHARMACY

"The noblest study of mankind is woman."

Pharmaceutical Association; Entertainment Committee, Y. M. C. A.

Of course everybody knows that "Deacon" will be married before long. He has a good start, and he says she is willing. He hasn't had time to count the love letters he has received. Look out, "Deacon," you'll be kidnaped before long!

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

WADE B. CHANDLER Braxton, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Cares not a pin what they say or may say."

A. and M. College, '17-'18; Pharmaceutical Association.

"Roy" is quiet in a crowd, but I can't say what would happen when you get him alone. Ask her! A good student and popular with his classmates. We can look for big things to happen in the forthcoming years.

G. W. CURTIS French Camp, Miss.
PHARMACY

"I am not in the roll of common men."

Pharmaceutical Association; Millsaps, '18-'19.

Curtis is one that doesn't take life seriously, but lets each day take care of itself. He stands high in his classes and takes part in all student activities. We know success is his.

JAMES OBREGON DEES Ethel, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Silence, more musical than any song."

Pharmaceutical Association.

"Parson" says that he is not a preacher if he does look like one. A good, all-round student, "Parson" says he is going to make " 'em" hop when he blows into town with his terrible line.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

CLEVELAND BEASLEY FEATHERSTON Hazlehurst, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Toil is the lot of all, but none for me."

Vice-President Pharmaceutical Association, '20-'21; Chairman of Employment Committee and Member Executive Committee, '21-'22; Member State Pharmaceutical Association; Hermaean; Y. M. C. A.

"Clive" says he wants some of his board money back, as he hasn't met breakfast but once this year, and he's such a shark in chemistry that he doesn't ever have to meet the class. Clive doesn't slight the path that leads toward the "Coop" either.

JOE W. FORD Taylorsville, Miss.
PHARMACY

"There is no art to find the mind's constructions in the face."

Basketball Team, '19-'20, '21; Gordon Hall Board of Control, '20-'21; President of Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Member of "M" Club, '21-'22.

"Sullivan's Hollow" produces something else besides basketball players. Joe is absorbing pharmacy right along, and reports that "Sullivan's Hollow" will shine sure enough when he turns his drug store loose. Unselfish and a familiar figure, as well as a good student.

WILLIAM GOBEL FORD Taylorsville, Miss.
PHARMACY

"I am sure care is an enemy to life."

Basketball Team, '19-'20-'21; Gordon Hall Board of Control, '21-'22; Treasurer Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Member of "M" Club, '21-'22.

"You tell 'em, drug store; I'm a pharmachute!" "Gobe" has the qualities of a successful man, and we know he will live up to them. In basketball "Gobe" is supreme and has backed many an opponent to the wall.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

CHARLES LEE HAGOOD Centreville, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Thy face the index to a noble mind."

Pharmaceutical Association, '20-'21; Class Baseball, '20-'21; Class Basketball, '20-'21; Pre-Medical Club, '19-'20; Secretary Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22.

"Charlie" has been with us for four years, and too much can't be said for him. He is an all-round Ole Miss man, participates in all activities, and can be called upon to do his part in any phase of the school life. He has held several offices of distinction.

HIRAM WILLIS HENDERSON Potts Camp, Miss.
PHARMACY

"I would rather excel others in knowledge than power."

American Legion, '21-'22; Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Masonic Club, '22; Phi Sigma, '22; President Junior Pharmacy Class; Employment Committee, Pharmaceutical Association; A. S. B.

When "Doc" announces a written and "Crip" ups and says he "knows his stuff," you had better beware. "Crip" has an "A" on his mind. One of the best students of the class, good-natured, and a gem in the hearts of those who know him.

JAMES W. HOWELL Houlka, Miss.
PHARMACY

"The man who knows he knows, he knows."

Pharmaceutical Association.

Howell has been with us only two years, but he is a regular fellow, and we know that achievement is his middle name. We hate to see him go.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

ERNEST HOUSTON JACKSON Blue Mountain, Miss.
PHARMACY

"See how doth the busy bee improve each shining hour."

Pharmaceutical Association, Historian '22; M. H. A., '18.

"Jack" will be remembered when he has gone out to fight his battle to win. We know he will, as "Jack" says things don't get too difficult for him. One of the "gang," and a mighty important member.

WILSON HARTWELL JOHNSON Brooksville, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Things are bound to happen—why worry; everything comes to him who waits—why hurry?"

Pharmaceutical Association, '20-'21-'22; Mississippi State Pharmaceutical Association, '21; Vice-President Senior Pharmacy Class, '22; Cotillion Club.

Brooksville lost a good man and Ole Miss gained one when "Happy" came to the University. A fine student, always willing to do his part in student activities. We wish him the very best in life.

GEORGE SPIVEY KENT Kilmichael, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Fraught with learning."

Secretary-Treasurer Senior Pharmacy Class, '22; Lew Wallace Prize in Pharmacognosy, '21; Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Cotillion Club, '22; Y. M. C. A., '21-'22.

"Spivey" says that some of these days he intends to be a pharmacist. He is only learning how to do it now. One of the steadiest in the class and a regular lady's man. Watch your step, kid!

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

ROY L. LANE Lumberton, Miss.
PHARMACY

"I had rather have a fool to make me merry than experience to make me sad."

Pharmaceutical Association.

"Boob" hails from that "sawdust pile" called Lumberton. He can't decide whether he should be a clown or a pharmacist, so we think he is taking a course in both. A jolly, all-round good sport.

LESLEY L. LEGGETT Seminary, Miss.
PHARMACY

"There are two sides to every question—mine and the wrong side."

Pharmaceutical Association.

Leggett has been at Ole Miss two years, but everybody knows him. He has a big heart and a place in it for everybody. He is ambitious, care-free, clever, and a splendid lad who will rapidly mount the rungs of the ladder of success. We wish him luck in life.

FRANK GRIFFIN LYERLY Meridian, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Who mixed reason with stories, and wisdom with jokes."

Manager Football Team, '22; Executive Committee Pharmacy Association; A. E. F. Club; Masonic Club; American Legion.

When he isn't acting in the capacity of football manager, "Skipper" studies pharmacy enough to keep well up with his class. "Skipper's" chief delight is in telling one of his unique collection of navy jokes.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

MARY HOWARD PITCHFORD Canton, Miss.
PHARMACY

"And looks commering with the skies, thy rapt soul sitting in thine eyes."

Ole Misses; M. S. M.; Marionettes, '22; Historian Pharmacy Class, '22; Secretary-Treasurer, '21; Executive Committee Pharmaceutical Association '21; Reporter '22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Legislative Council Student Government; Mississippian Staff, '22.

"Howard" has thoroughly convinced herself that she doesn't like men, and so firmly believes it that she is trying to convince the rest of us of it. So, to please her, we shall predict a meteoric career. However, some men don't stop for a career.

CYRUS AMIS RAPE Moss Point, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Persuasion tips his tongue whene'er he talks."

Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Executive Committee Pharmaceutical Association, '22; Varsity Basketball, '21-'22; Manager Basketball, '22; "M" Club, '21-'22; Secretary and Treasurer of "M" Club, '21-'22; "M" Club Dance Committee, '22; Secretary-Treasurer Ole Miss Board of Control, '22; Business Manager Ole Miss, '22; Cotillion Club.

Cy is a little man, but sometimes he can be so big! All the seniors say that's so after he adopted the greeting, "Got that ten dollars yet?" A number of the men on the basketball floor can say so, too, and emphatically.

SAM H. SEALE Kilmichael, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Perseverance conquers all things."

Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Y. M. C. A., '21-'22.

When the chemistry sharks are advertised for, "Sam" will no doubt be the people's choice, as the next book to be written will be his, "How I Learned Organic Chemistry." A good, all-round student, well liked by all. Luck to you, Sam!

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

HENRY LLOYD STANFORD Blue Mountain, Miss.
PHARMACY

"Wisely and slow; they stumble that run fast."

Pharmaceutical Association, '20-'21-'22; Cotillion Club, '22.

Jack comes from Blue Mountain, and has been with us four years. He is the ladies' favorite on the dance floor, whether they know him or not. Jack can't help but be a good "pharmacuate," as he has that in his work for the last two years. We wish him the best.

WILLIAM DUNCAN WATKINS Mize, Miss.
PHARMACY

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure my business."

Pharmaceutical Association.

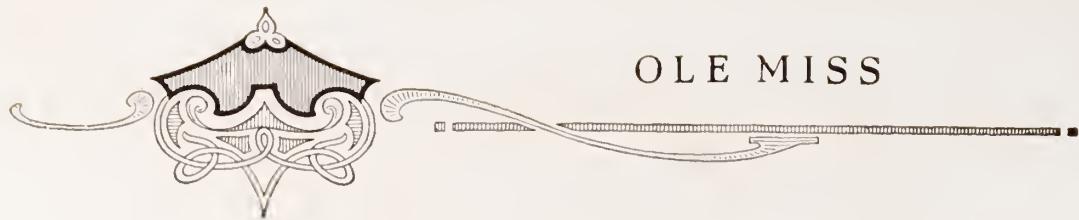

Watkins is gradually climbing to the top in the Department of Pharmacy. A splendid student, and Dame Fortune will be bound to be good to him.

L. E. WILSON Pontotoc, Miss.
PHARMACY

"A jolly good fellow with all of the virtues and none of the faults."

Pharmaceutical Association, '21-'22; Executive Committee Pharmaceutical Association, '22; Cotillion Club.

Lester is a Pontotoc product, a good worker in his classes, and stands high in the esteem of the students.

CHAPTER THREE ATHLETICS

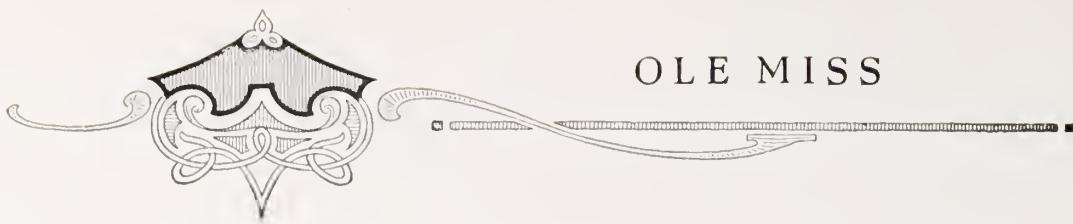

Spirit of Athletics

The spirit of athletics, the power that draws men into a public display of their skill, their endurance, their accuracy, their cunning, their speed, their supremacy over other men, which, as the backbone of ancient Greece, was responsible for the early overthrow of the Orient and gave us the Olympic games, which developed the nation headed by the City of the Seven Hills that threatened to cover the earth with the concomitants of her rule, and gave to the world the arena, and to Latin students their "Caesar," which developed into the chivalry of Medieval Knighthood, when armored men strove to test their might against all comers for the kiss of a maiden or a flower from her hair; the spirit that has passed through a cycle from the lithe and sinewy grace of the carefully poised Grecian discus thrower, expressed in hewn marble that has been beautifully preserved to us through all the ages, through the grind, the endurance, the power of recovery, the repeated contest of the tournament, back again by way of the foils to the struggling demons of the gridiron, the skilled performers of the diamond, and outdoor field events, with the same discus throw of the Grecian without its perfection, the same Marathon without its purpose, and the same struggle without its intent. But in the place of the qualities of those days arises the science of modern athletics, a keen appreciation of an opponent's powers, a perception, an agility, a conservation of energy, and teamwork which makes it worthy of its age. And in front of it all looms the Southern college athlete, fighting for unrewarded victory, learning to appreciate defeat, striking hard but striking fair, and striving to preserve clean sportsmanship.

H.

Coach Sullivan

The college session of 1919-'20 brought to the University of Mississippi a new coach in the person of Raymond L. Sullivan, formerly of Central High, Memphis, Tenn. Before taking up his new position Coach Sullivan was Supervisor of Physical Education, Public Schools, Muskogee, Okla., 1909-11.

The years 1912-17 found him at Normal School of Physical Education, Michigan. His army record shows him in the First Officers' Training Camp, from which he was commissioned a First Lieutenant, 118th Field Artillery. He has always been associated with athletics and with the leading men in the circle of college athletics.

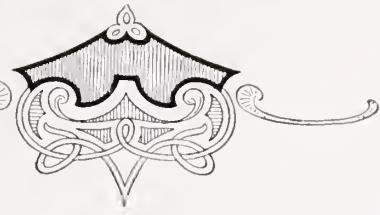

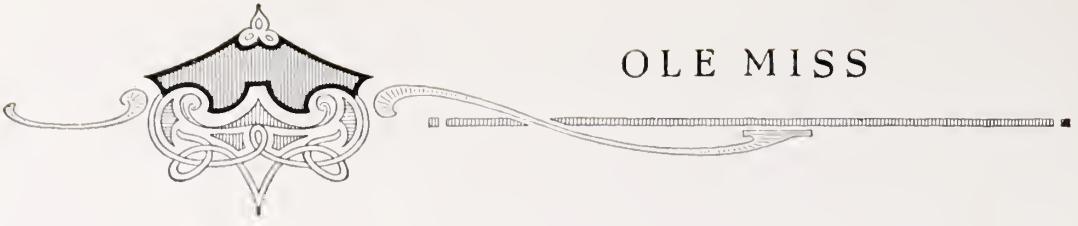

Owing to the scarcity of experienced material in practically all branches of athletics, Coach Sullivan faced one of the hardest propositions ever experienced by a coach who attempted to turn out winning teams for his school. This fact was particularly evident in football. In spite of the fact that our light, inexperienced men were unable to win any of our big games, our team always made a creditable showing and was characterized by its clean, hard playing, and the old University fighting spirit. The team showed the effects of good coaching, but the lack of weight and experience caused them to go down in defeat before heavier and more experienced rivals.

After the close of the football season, Coach Sullivan's real ability was shown in the way he molded a basketball team out of almost raw material. The next year, having almost the same players, he finished the season with an excellent record and gave us the right to the Championship of the State. Weaving his material together with marked skill and an impenetrable offense and defense, he bids fair this season to develop a championship team.

In the major sport of the South, his excellent coaching during his first year rewarded us with an S. I. A. A. Championship Baseball Team. The following year his work produced a State Championship Team.

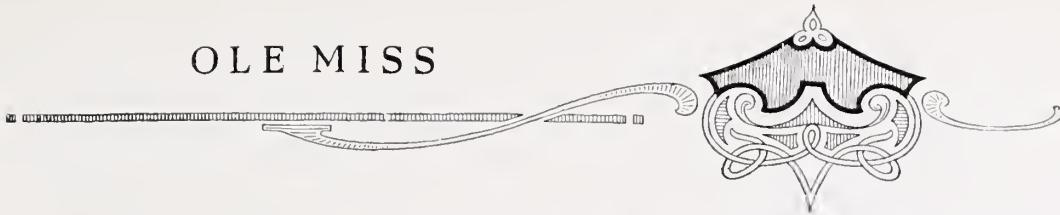

During the short time in which he has been with us he has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body, not only on account of his ability as a coach, but also because from the very first we were impressed by the fact that he is a man of the highest principles, and the better we have come to know him, the stronger has this conviction become.

FOOTBALL

TEAM ONE

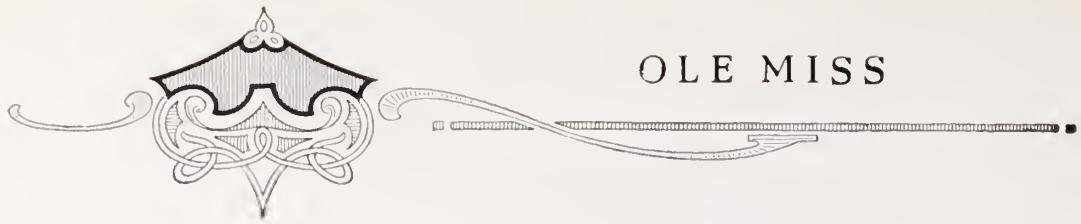

TEAM TWO

Captain Howard D. Robinson

Captain Howard D. Robinson came to us from Canton, Miss., in 1917, and soon won our friendship. His first appearance on the football field with a world of determination and unlooked-for display of knowledge in the art of gridiron warfare soon won him the name of "Santa Claus," by which he is known to everyone. The first year he served at half for the Red and Blue, and his fierce drive could always be depended on when there was need of a three or four-yard gain. The same year he left us to join the Marine Corps. While in the service he held down his old position on the company team. The fall of '19 found him again with the Red and Blue, alternating between half and full—seemingly the position for him. The year '20 found him playing at fullback. Ripping and tearing his way through the line, he marked up yards to his credit during the season. For it has never been said that "Santa" was driven back. In acknowledgment of the unquestionable confidence in him and his fighting ability he was chosen to lead the Ole Miss eleven for the season of 1921, and accomplished his task in a manner creditable to himself and his university.

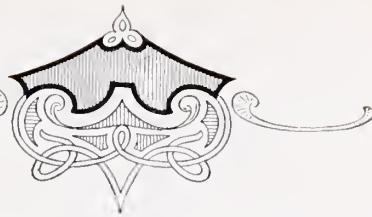

OLE MISS 82; W. T. N. 0

The Ole Miss warriors opened the season with a rush, defeating Normal by the largest score made in the South for that day. From the start it was evident that Normal was no match for her opponents. Barbour at the helm proved himself a good strategian. "Shed" Davis at right tackle, appearing for the first time in the Red and Blue uniform, showed his born worth as a linesman by tearing through the line and getting two-thirds of the tackles. "Shed's" work during the remaining season proved we were not mistaken in his fighting ability. Being the first game, it was a test of "Who's Who and Why" for the coming season.

GREENBACKS DEFEAT RED AND BLUE

Probably the most telling game of the season, in picking out new material, was that with Tulane. This was the first invasion of enemy territory, and the second game of the season. The first quarter showed us; Tulane had succeeded in placing the pigskin on the Red and Blue's one-yard line before our dazed freshmen had regained their senses. Here they came to earth. Putting their shoulders together, with the old men they formed a stonewall defense that could not be penetrated. Tulane was held for downs and Barbour punted out of danger.

"Possum" McDaniels, the stellar Ole Miss end, broke up the heavy Greenback interference. "Buster" Keeton and "Fresh" Smith rolled the big Tulane line back into its own plays.

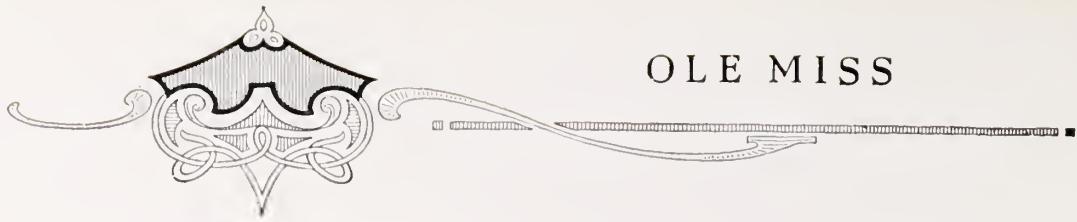

MAJORS SNOWED UNDER BY OLE MISS

The Red and Blue scored in the first five minutes of play by end runs and line plunges. Receiving the kick-off, Ole Miss worked to within scoring distance, but an unlucky fumble cost them a touch-back. Millsaps kicked out of danger and the score ended for the first quarter 7-0. In the second half "Red" Whittington started things off by scooping a low punt and racing twenty-five yards for a score. "Mac" tallied next. Accepting it as a challenge, "Red" intercepted a pass and raced over for six points. The appearance of "Opp" O'Mara at center recalled his previous varsity record for Ole Miss and relieved the uneasiness of our strength at this position. It was only in the second quarter that Millsaps endangered the Ole Miss goal by a series of short running passes and trick plays, but it failed to net them a score.

S. P. U. 0; OLE MISS 35

The Tennessee boys paid us their annual visit with a light, scrapping team. As the game immediately preceded the annual gridiron test with A. & M., most of the regulars were not used. The line was given a chance to try any of the tricks of the craft without much chance of loss or gain. "Pee-Wee" Gober crashed through the line and broke up many plays by his ever present defense work. On the offense his weight assured a wagon load for the ball. Leftwich at end displayed his future worth by his quick analysis of a play and good interference on the offense. The S. P. U. men put up a good fight. They were considerably outweighed by our men, but the black jerseys were on their toes to a man.

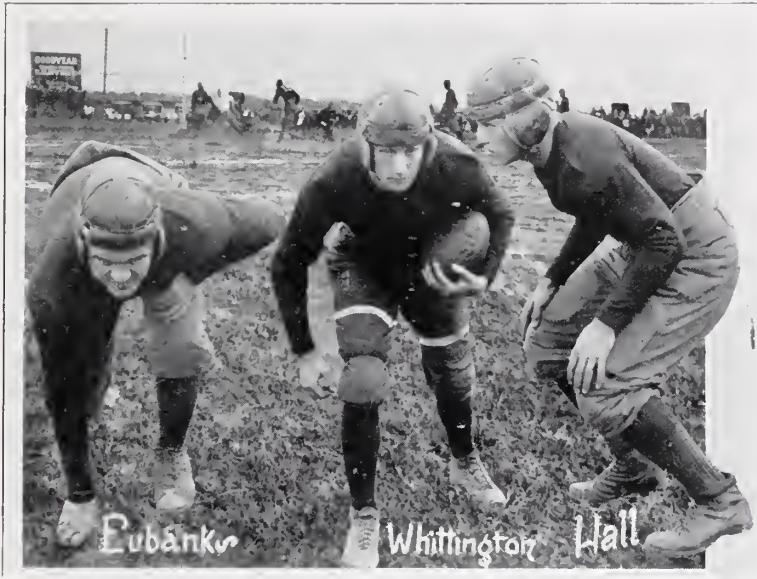

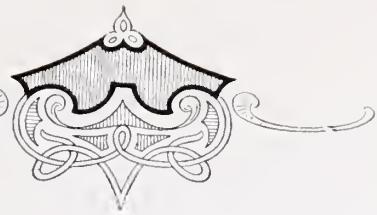

OLE MISS LOSES TO A. & M.

With the state as their audience, either in person or attention, the ancient rivals met on neutral ground at Greenwood for their annual combat. As usual Ole Miss drew the lion's share of hard luck, once getting the ball within scoring distance and losing on a fumble. Captain Robinson started the game at left guard, setting the pace for the old men and giving them new confidence and fighting talk. Later he was shifted to full, where his telling knife-like drives accounted for many yards. At right end Scruggs' unusual pass-catching ability netted us several pretty gains. On the defense his sure tackling and great speed broke up many plays. One of the prettiest features of the game occurred when the Ole Miss men held their opponents for three downs, with the ball one foot from the goal.

"CHOCTAWS" VS. OLE MISS

This was a hard-fought battle, staged on neutral ground at Vicksburg, resulting in a defeat for our team. Taking the lead in the second quarter, the "Choctaws" could not be passed.

There were many sensational plays by "Goat" Hale of Mississippi, but it remained for a Vicksburg boy to make the play which stood out above all others. It happened in the third quarter when the Red and Blue were on the defense, ten yards from their own goal. Intercepting a pass, "Buck" Barbour, dodging and twisting through the line, ran ninety-five yards for a touchdown. "Sally" Crane at left tackle time after time threw his wedging force into the line and stopped the on-rush. On the offense his knife-like drive always meant an opening. "Si" Alexander, substituting for Gober at right guard, soon let it be known that he was present by his veteran tactics and bulldog grit, which were evident in the shift of the attack to the opposite side. The game ended, Ole Miss 7; Mississippi College 27.

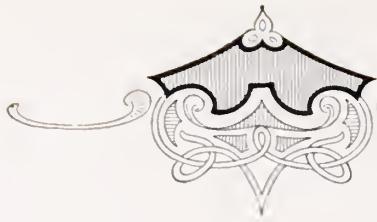

L. S. U. 21; OLE MISS 0

The Ole Miss fighting machine started off in a rush, sweeping the Tigers off their feet and placing the ball on their ten-yard line. The grandstand burst forth with, "Hold 'em, Tigers," and so they did. The Red and Blue warriors struck a Gibraltar defense and were held for downs. "Fresh" Smithson swept the Tiger ends for good gains. Hall and Capt. Robinson nailed the Tigers to the ground with their sure tackling. "Shed" Davis and "Curly" Lefwich were poison for all off-tackle plays coming their way. The game was a fight from start to finish.

DOCTORS DEFEAT OLE MISS

A drizzling rain resulted in a wet and muddy field, which placed the fast Ole Miss backfield at a considerable disadvantage. This, however, didn't stop them from playing good football and making more first downs than their opponents. Barbour in the second quarter received the ball from the kick-off, and evading his opponents, ran from the five-yard line for a touchdown. Soon after he was injured and replaced by Montgomery. "Little Johnnie" handled the team with his usual ease and sureness. The soggy field prevented the use of his wonderful speed and dodging ability. Nevertheless many gains can be credited to him. Akin, at full, carried the ball like a veteran in spite of the mud, and made many gains with his tearing drive. At left guard "Jimmie" Williams blocked line drives with bulldog tenacity. The game ended, University of Tennessee Doctors 24; Ole Miss 6.

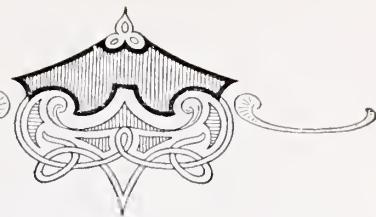

THE CUBAN TRIP

The squad was greatly enthused when Coach Sullivan announced the trip giving nine days in Havana. They sailed from New Orleans on the Atena, of the Great White Fleet. The trip over was like most voyages, but filled with excitement for those who had never been to sea before. Gober, thinking he was back in the navy, semaphored a river light, thinking it a man.

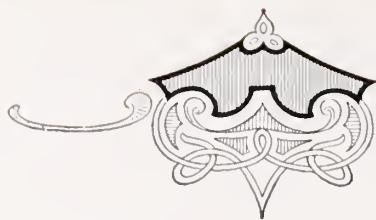

Five thousand people assembled in Almendares Park on New Year's Day to witness the annual football game in Cuba. Capt. Robinson won the toss. Barbour received the kick-off and returned it twenty-five yards. Robinson, Whittington and Montgomery easily gained first down, but Ole Miss was forced to punt on account of penalties. A trick play and penalties, "of the officials," placed the ball on our five-yard line. The Cubans shoved it over for the first score. They scored again in the third, but were held scoreless the fourth.

Everyone enjoyed the stay in Havana very much. On board coming back "Possum," who had succeeded in evading the influences of Spanish love, lost his heart and football sweater to an "American Beauty." We admire his choice. Those making the trip were Coach Sullivan, Capt. Robinson, Barbour, Montgomery, Whittington, Smithson, Akin, Scruggs, McDaniels, Smith, Gober, Keeton, Eubanks, Crain, Leftwich, Moseley, and Stovall.

To the Scrubs

To the scrubs we owe the success of the varsity, the success of Ole Miss in football. Hammered and pounded from the first to the last of the sesaon, continually obliged to learn new tricks in order to keep the varsity at its sharpest senses, they get no rest. Everyone is for the varsity, and for the varsity alone. Never do the scrubs get into the limelight or get the least bit of praise. But some are lucky enough to reap the great reward when the coach shifts them to the squad, where they have the chance to make the Ole Miss name more famous, due to the severe acid test as scrub. And yet to the scrub who does not make the squad we owe praise, for he has done his part in strengthening the real fighting machine.

BASKETBALL

Captain Arthur E. Scruggs

Captain Arthur Earle Scruggs has been an important factor in the Ole Miss quintet for three years. His bulldog tenacity and quick footwork have robbed many a team of a score. This innate athletic ability of his is not only evident on the court, but also on the gridiron. And by these qualities he has often been described by his fellows as "a panther-like steel cable." His position is guard, but that does not indicate he is not adept at dropping the sphere in the basket from unlooked for angles. In looking for a leader who possessed the qualities of quick thinking, consistent fighting, a clean, hard encounter, and thorough knowledge of the game, he was chosen to lead the quintet for the season of 1922, and despite circumstances which might have discouraged any captain, he is guiding the team in a manner proclaiming him a born leader among the realms of basketball.

The Varsity

JOHNNIE MONTGOMERY, "Little Johnnie"

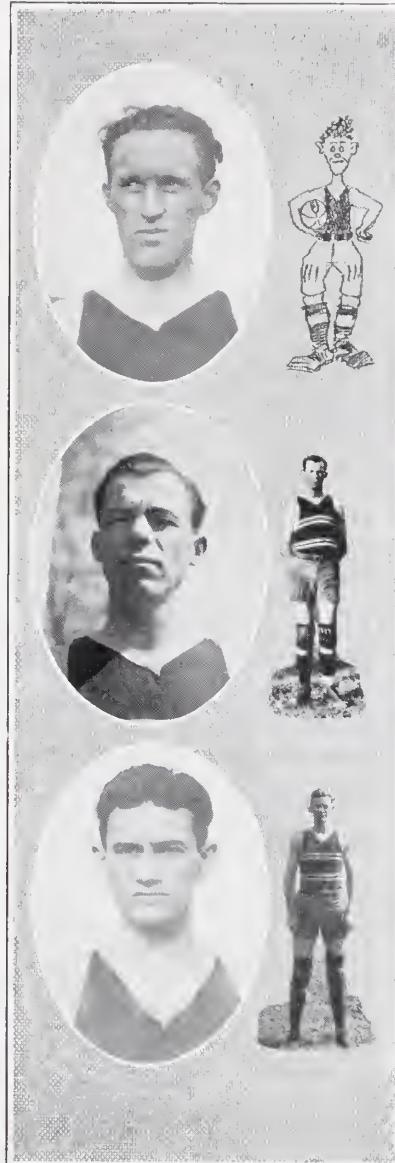

Streaking over the court with amazing surety, Johnnie seems to have the ball chasing him. Coming within his grasp he pushes it from him in the direction of the goal and it obediently drops in the basket at whatever angle thrown. The end of this season marks him a two-stripe man.

GOBEL FORD, "Gobe"

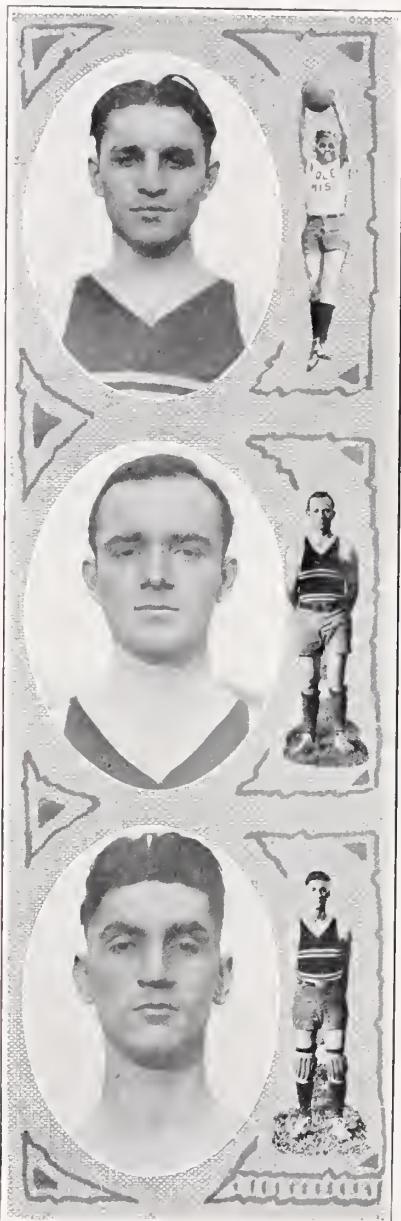

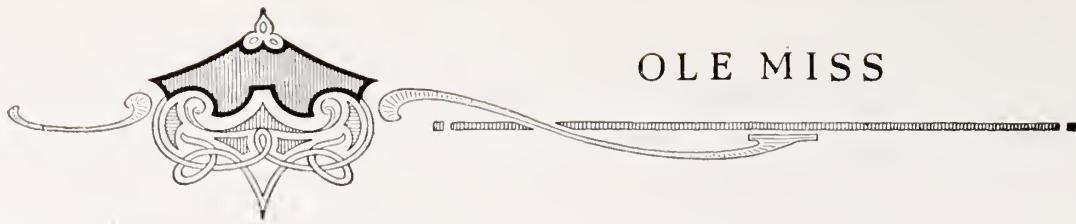

This quiet, hard-fighting member of the quintet is also an old man, this making his third year. As a basket shooter there are none who can beat him. A valuable man on any team, and one whom his opponents fear.

GRAYDON FLOWERS, "Buck"

This, the second year of his career on the quintet, found "Buck" at center, where he gave his opponents more than they could easily handle. Possessing unusual speed and accurate shooting ability, he is under the goal and scores before his opponents are aware of his presence.

OLE MISS

The Varsity

R. I. SCHWARTZ, "Schlitz"

"Schlitz" has served the quintet at guard for three years. His unerring shot, quick footwork, and unexpected left-hand passing have puzzled many of his opponents. For fast, smooth work there is none his equal on the Ole Miss court.

C. A. RAPE, "Cy"

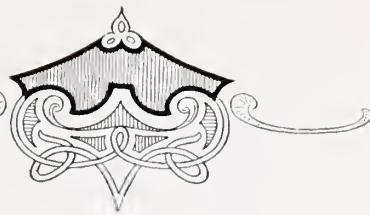

This is his third year on the varsity, and he is a valuable man. Some of his opponents try to take advantage of his size, but when they "ratch out for him, he twa'n't there," but down the court for a score with his pretty shots.

W. C. SMITH

Although a first-year man with us, his excellent record at Normal, and knowledge of the game which can not be questioned, won him a place on this season's quintet. With such a good start, we are looking for greater things from him in coming seasons.

Miss L. Kathryn Lovett

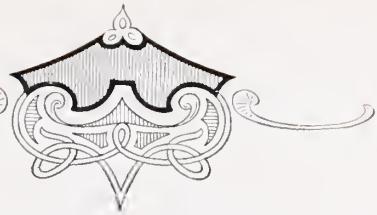

Woefully neglected and badly needed, as was the co-ed's part in athletics at the university, it received its first breath of life in 1920 when Miss Kathryn Lovett came to us from Battle Creek Normal School of Physical Education. Her record previous to accepting the present position she now fills, accounts for the excellent showing she has made. In 1916 she attended Syracuse University. In 1920 she graduated from Battle Creek Normal School of Physical Education with high honors. While in training she was awarded a varsity letter in basketball, hockey, and gymnasium work. In addition, she was awarded the medal for the best all-around girl swimmer in school.

In spite of the handicap from lack of equipment in her department, Miss Lovett has made exceptional progress. The basketball team has shown up much better against their opponents, due to her ability to instruct the players in the art of the game. Much benefit has been derived by the girls who have been fortunate enough to be a member of the calisthenic classes under the direction of Miss Lovett.

Portraying the true characteristics of the young womanhood and girlhood of America that we love so much, Miss Lovett quickly won a place in the heart of the entire school.

SQUAD OF 1921-22

The Varsity

MINEOLA BAILEY

Although "Minnie's" second year on the varsity, her unusual fighting qualities and knowledge of the game, together with her ability as a leader, place her captain of the sextet this season. The Ole Miss co-eds are losing their best side center, as "Minnie" graduates this year.

DELMARTYN VARDAMAN

Throughout the entire game, "Del" is on the alert and secures the ball from her opponent with unusual ease and dexterity. This season finds her filling a double position of player and manager, which she does with commendable thoroughness.

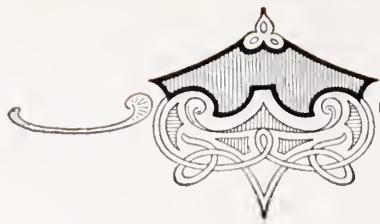

MARY GEORGE KINCANNON

Mary George is a player of natural ability, her height giving her an advantage at her position as guard. She goes into a game whole-heartedly and is noted for simply "picking the ball out of the air." Her determined fighting made a wonderful appearance on the court in every game. A future Ole Miss star, as she will be with us another year.

MARTHA IDA WISEMAN

This season was "Jack's" first year on the sextet. Her quick interference and endless endurance made her the best guard on the team. She is our most brilliant player, having been written up as our "stellar light." "Jack" has one more year at Ole Miss.

OLE MISS

The Varsity

KATHLEEN WADE

Very few of Kathleen's opponents have beaten her to the tip-off because of her quickness and knowledge of the game. Although her first year here, her value as jumping center for the team can not be overestimated. We expect to hear more of her if she returns next year.

ELIZABETH VARDAMAN

Although her first year on the team, Elizabeth has shown that she is indispensable to its strength. Besides being a good forward, she has an unusual ability as a goal thrower.

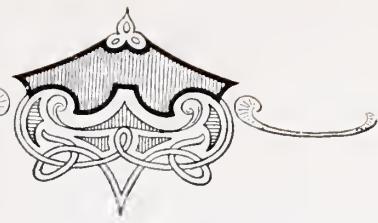

VIVIAN JOHNSON

For determination and pluck, none showed more than Vivian, which is proven by her winning a place at forward on this season's sextet. The record she made can not be surpassed.

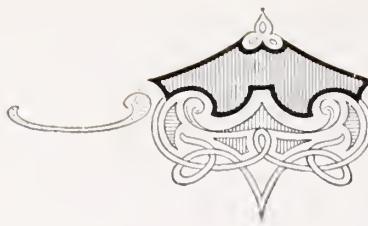

GERALDINE McCALL

"Scotchie" has been a member of the sextet for three years. Unfortunately an injury prevented her from taking part in every game, which fact was quite detrimental to the team because we missed her excellent playing at forward.

BASEBALL

Baseball Review, 1921

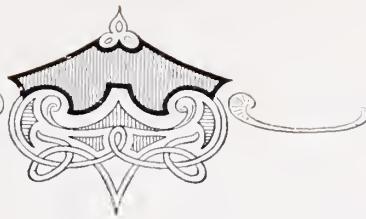

HE Ole Miss baseball nine got away to a very bad start, but despite this fact they made up for lost time by ending the season with the official title, State Champions. This poor beginning was caused by a lack of pitching material at the first of the season, and by the inability of one or two varsity men, because of heavy classroom work, to make certain important trips. However, when they did "get going" everyone agreed that they were a team that was hard to stop. Behind the bat was "Happy" Hathorn, varsity catcher of the 1920 team, who alternated with George Ramsey. Our mainstays on the mound were Johnny Montgomery, Holloway Riddell, Quay Fernandez, and Louis Henderson, with Montgomery, Riddell and Henderson performing at times in the outfield. Dewey Brown and "Spot" Petty divided the season at first base, with Petty playing outfield in a few games. Captain Drane Lester, a four-letter man on the team, held down second base, while Spencer Wood and Calvin Barbour, with three years each to their credit as college performers, took care of shortstop and third base, respectively. In left field was Henderson or Hewes, while Riddell and Mcntgomery alternated in center, with Amsler stationed in right during most of the season. Wilson and Petty performed well in the outer gardens in the Mississippi College series.

The most successful series was probably the one in which the highly touted Mississippi College Choctaws, headed by Joe Edwards, went down in defeat twice, and were lucky to get a tie score in the tenth by rain, with two Ole Miss men on bases, only one man gone, and the heavy end of the batting order up. Edwards was nicked for twenty-four safeties in the two games he hurled against the Red and Blue warriors.

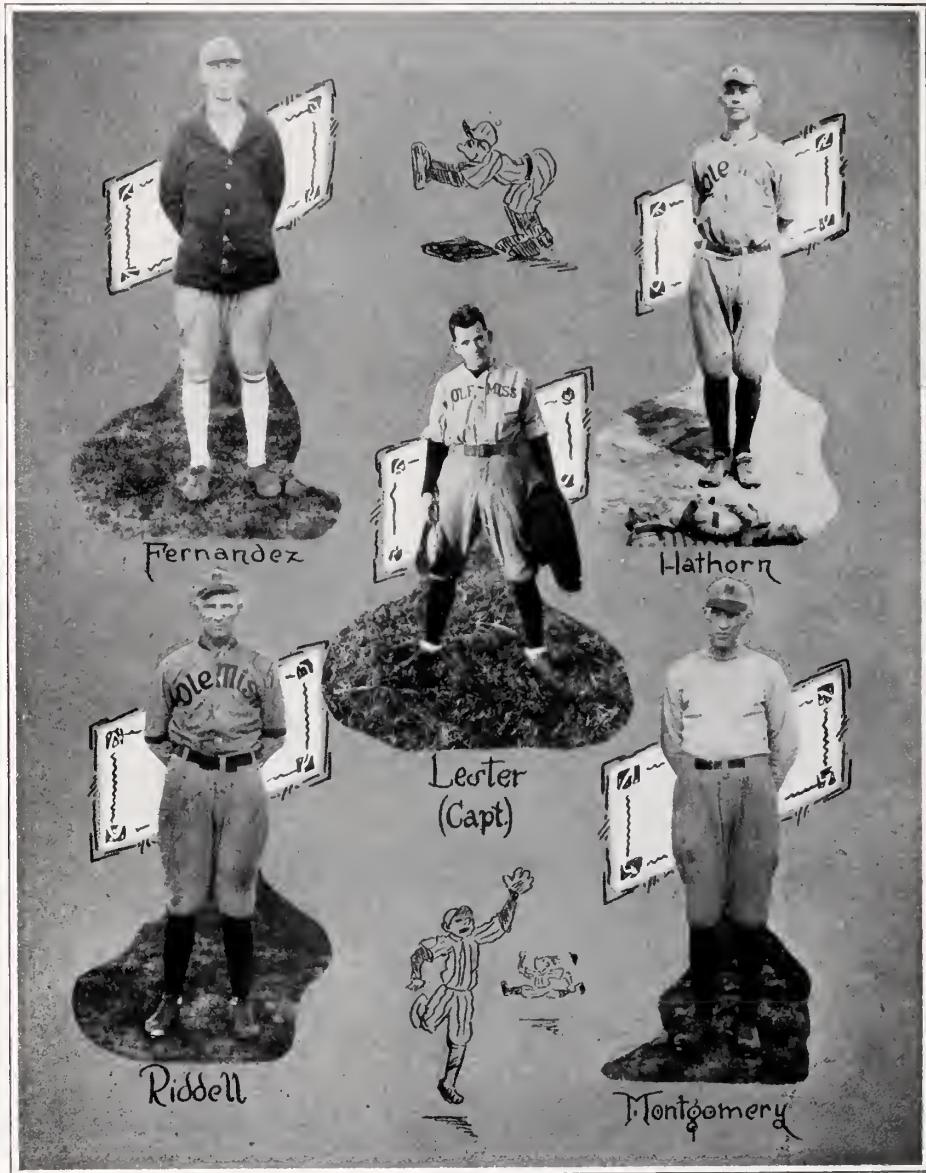

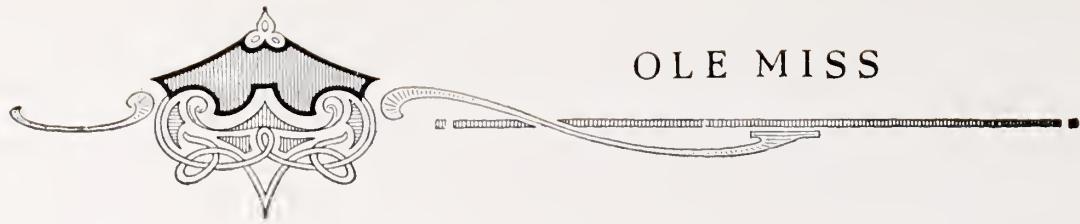

Six three-hundred hitters, coupled with good pitching, was a combination that could not be denied during the entire season, and a heroic spurt toward the end of the schedule gave a well-earned State Championship to the varsity, which had lost most of its series on flukes and lucky breaks in favor of the opposing teams.

The coveted "M" and Championship gold baseballs were awarded to the following men: Manager "Jap" George, Captain Drane Lester, "Happy" Hathorn, George Ramsey, Dewey Brown, "Spot" Petty, Spencer Wood, Calvin Barbour, Louis Henderson, Gaston Hewes, Holloway Riddell, Johnny Montgomery, Guy Amsler, and Quay Fernandez.

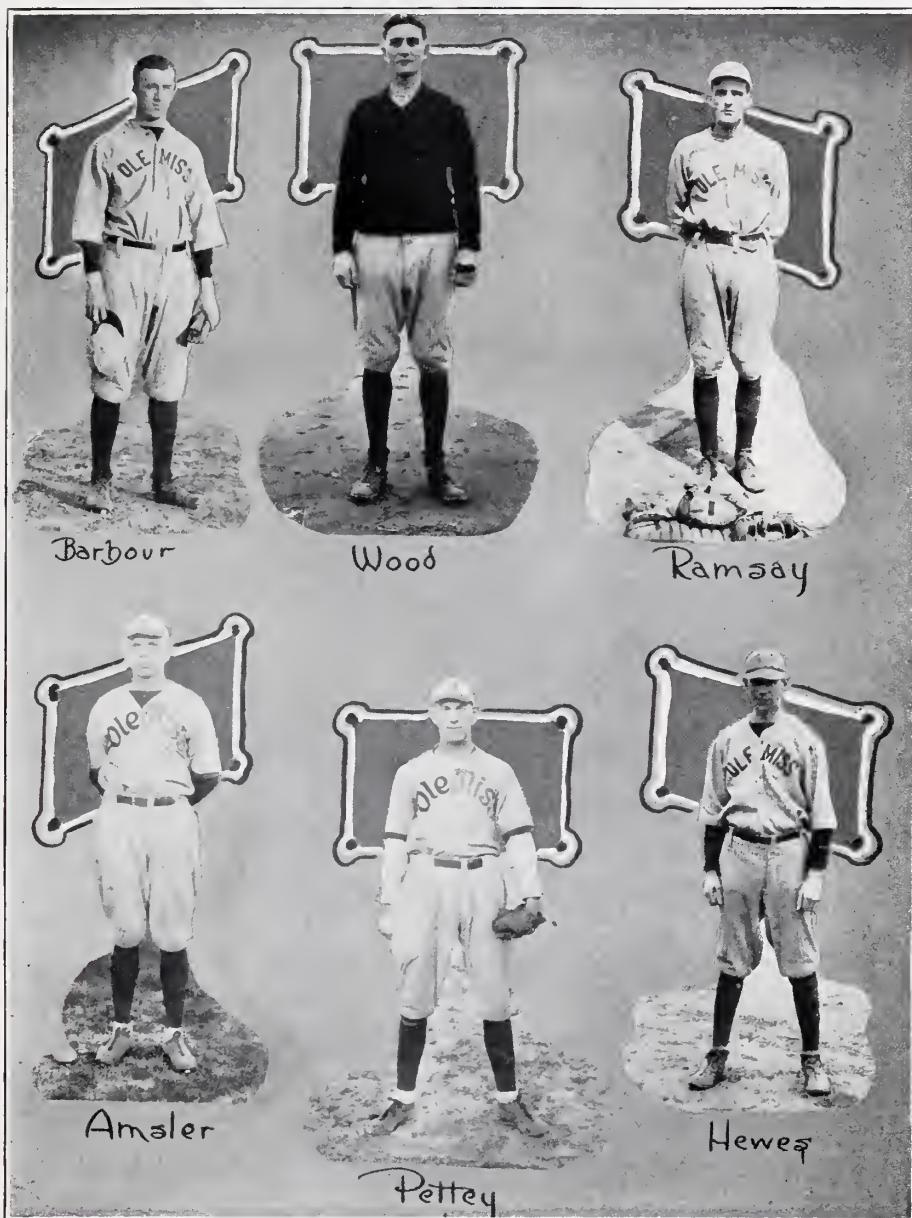

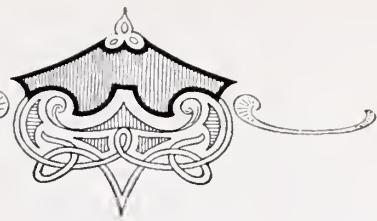

Captain Calvin C. Barbour

Captain Calvin C. Barbour's athletic history at the university began in 1918-19. During the spring of the same year he was "utility man" on the baseball squad. Returning the next year he served in the outfield at center. The quality of his work in the field could not be questioned at all and his ability to wield the stick placed him among the leaders in batting. His speed on the bases increased his value to the team. By consistent fighting, keen batting eye, and fast speed on the bases, he was awarded at the end of the season a letter on the S. I. A. A. Championship Team. Acquiring a great deal more knowledge about the game during the summer he returned last year and showed other qualities in the infield at third base, at the same time remaining among the leaders in batting average. Recognizing his ability as a leader and a thorough student of the finer points in the national sport he was selected by his teammates to captain the team for the coming season, and under his leadership this team promises to rank among the South's foremost of the spring of '22.

Baseball Prospects

As it is the hope of the annual staff to have the year book in the hands of the students before the baseball season is over, we can not give more than an account of the prospect for the 1922 team. With the present indications there seems no reason why the end of the season should not find our team state champions and possibly S. I. A. A. champions, barring unforeseen mishaps.

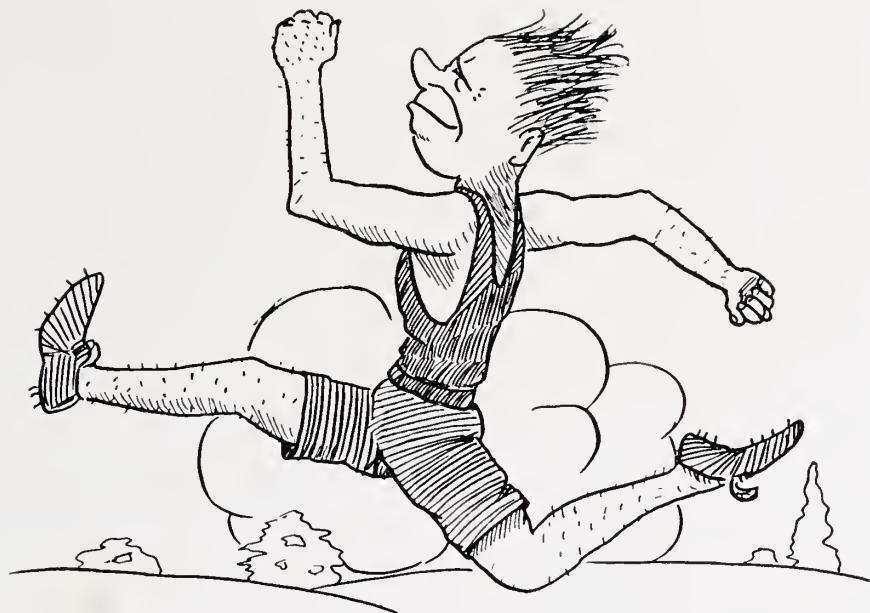

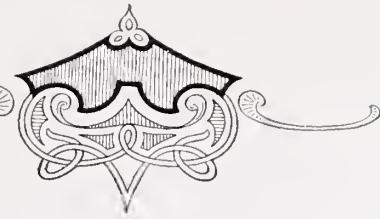

Among those who were on the squad last year and have returned this season we find eight letter men and seven who lacked but just a little of making a letter. For the infield there are Montgomery, Lester, Woods, O'Mara, Pettey, Kelly, Drane, Lester, McNease, Temple, Wilson; and in the outfield Montgomery, Yerger, Hewes, Howell, Rosenthal, Brown, Turley, Brooks, Jones. As is true of every season, new men come in, and at times a player is unearthed who makes good the first year. But among those whom we are especially looking to for a showing are "Red" Whittington, Coletta, Cutcliff, Ramsay, Akin, Smithson and Booth.

A feature which has heretofore not been found in the schedule is a number of games with the big Northern colleges, and with such fine prospects there is no reason why we should not only make a name for ourselves at home, but also abroad.

TRACK

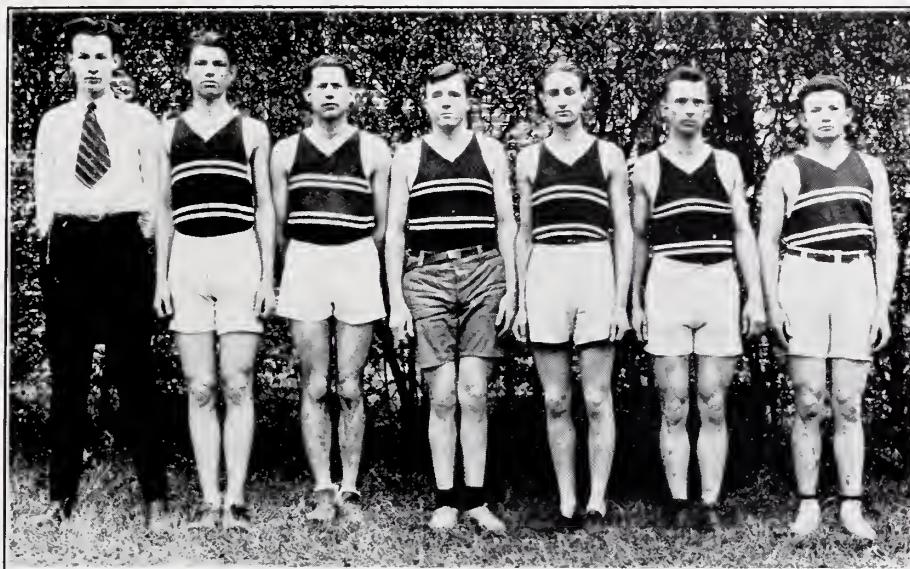

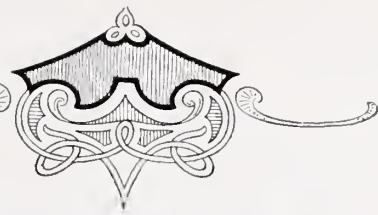

Captain Vardaman Hart

When Vardaman Hart entered the university in 1920 his reputation as a master of the cinder track came with him, and he found it his duty to prove that he had in him what everyone believed. When track season began in earnest the "Freshman" soon had his fellow runners realizing that "Rumor" often speaks truth. Naturally no dazzling performances resulted from the young sprinter's practice, but soon he proved himself Ole Miss' fastest short distance man, and a splendid hurdler.

Hart was easily chosen our representative in the 100-yard and 220-yard dash for the S. I. A. A. meet at Atlanta in 1921, and made an unusually creditable showing for a first year man who had not had access to the advantages of a larger and better equipped school. He returned in the fall of '21 and when the past season's squad met to select the man who should lead them, Vardaman Hart was chosen as most capable.

In the early workouts he has shown that even more can be expected of his personal efforts than last year, and that in the absence of a track coach his presence and assistance will be a winning factor in the development of both new and old material into the equad of '22.

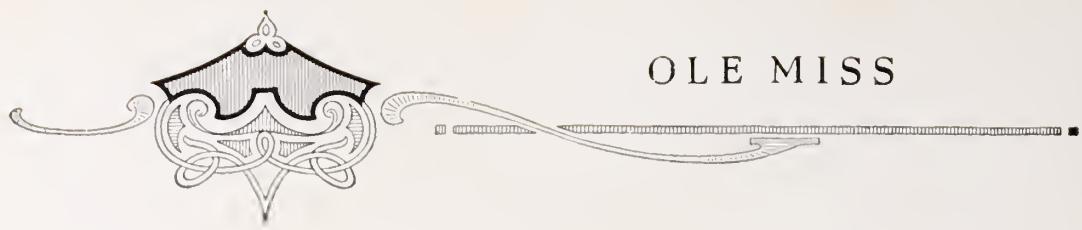

Track

The track season of 1921 was one of moderate success. A large number of men were out and were skilfully trained by Coach Jernigan. Of these, four were chosen to represent us in the S. I. A. A. meet; they were Captain Ritchey, Flowers, Hart and Pickins. Ritchey carried off second place in the broad jump and the other men showed up creditably.

This year, 1922, we were unfortunate in losing the services of Coach Jernigan and are without a coach for this sport. However, there is some promising material, and it is safe to predict a good team. Among those showing up well in the early work-out are Captain Hart, and Hand in the sprints; Howorth, Hall, F. E., and Herring, J. W., in the distances; Moody, in the pole vaults; Hand and Fant, in the hurdles, and Huffman in the weights. Others show great promise, and will no doubt develop good entries in the events at the big meet.

Participation in two meets is expected; an interstate four-cornered meet is being planned, and the annual S. I. A. A. outdoor games to be held this year in Baton Rouge. Track, as a major sport, does not hold the place at Ole Miss that it should, which we sincerely regret. But we still hope that the near future will give us a boost, and place us among the foremost colleges in this branch of athletics.

IN which we attempt to show the reader those factors, outside of the classroom, which make an institution what it is, her writers, her orators, her organized professional men, her student executives, her musicians and her social life.*

PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION

History of Pharmaceutical Association, '22

The science of Pharmacy covers a vast area; nature in its forms, both animate and inanimate, furnishes a means for the curing of diseases, the knowledge of which in its wide scope of Botany, Materia Medica, Zoology, Toxicology and Physics, is Pharmacy proper.

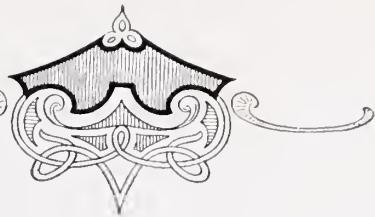

In order to further the interest of Pharmacy as a science and a profession among the students of the university, there has been established a Pharmaceutical Association. The University of Mississippi Pharmaceutical Association is recognized by and is closely affiliated with the Mississippi State Pharmaceutical Association, and since its establishment here in 1918 has prospered with marked success.

The association is composed of all students of Pharmacy, who work together in one common interest of promoting the ideals of the association, which are fundamentally a strong attempt towards raising the standards of Pharmacy and thereby giving it the just position it deserves, that of being one of the leading professions practiced by men and women of high and noble ambitions and aspirations.

This session of 1921-22 has brought about the culminating perfection of the work planned in former years of the Association, so that next year the records of progress will show a brightly illuminated path to be followed by their successors who will steer the association ship along its course of importing enthusiasm, knowledge and zeal to all Pharmacy students.

Throw
Your ill-smelling onions and
Prehistoric eggs at us. We Don't like them, but Expect them and possibly
Deserve them.
However,
If you are mentioned in

The Outrage

And growl about
It, then we know it is because
Either you don't admire
Liars
Or the truth hurts.
If you laugh you are Taking it in the
Spirit in which we
Have given it.
But
Whether you laugh or growl,
Split your sides or tear your
Hair, here it is, both
Truth and fiction.
PERUSE.

 SONNY J. BELL City Editor
 Circulation Manager

We wish to announce that the Annual Inter-collegiate Rummy meet will be held in Room 38, East Wing, Gordon Hall, on Tuesday, December 13, 1921. All eligible men will please be present. Gordon Hall will be represented by Sonny Bell, "Byehell" Payne and Johnny Montgomery. Rook cards will be used instead of spot cards.

It is with pleasure that we announce the election of Mr. "Hot-Shot" Booth, of Guntown, Mississippi, as captain of the Ole Miss Put and Take Team. This young man is well known to everybody on the campus and he has assured the writer that he will endeavor to get together the very best material on the campus, and in a short time the team will be ready to compete with Rust Institute and Ward-Belmont. Dates have been filled with Grenada College and M. S. C. W. The results of all the contests will be published by the Third Floor News. Mr. Booth has named as his manager Mr. Tit Walker, one of the best Put and Takers in the state; he never fails to take all in sight.

The third floor fire department was called out the other night to Room 14, East Gordon, but due to the efforts of the force little damage was done. Some of Red Whittington's hair fell in a pile of paper while none of the occupants of the room were noticing what was happening.

It is rumored that Freshman Gober is contemplating matrimony. The editor of the News extends congratulations to the lucky lady.

YOUNG MAN HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Yesterday while cranking his Ford, one of the main wires running from the left front fender to the windshield broke on Spot Pettey's car, and hit him over the right eye. The young man was rushed to the hospital, and at the time of writing was reported to be resting well. Since the Ford is no good without this wire, only ten more remaining, the parts were sold to the Oxford Junk Shop.

A tea was given in honor of Buster Keeton yesterday afternoon by the members of the football team. The honoree was attired in one of the most attractive suit of overalls ever seen on the university campus.

LOST

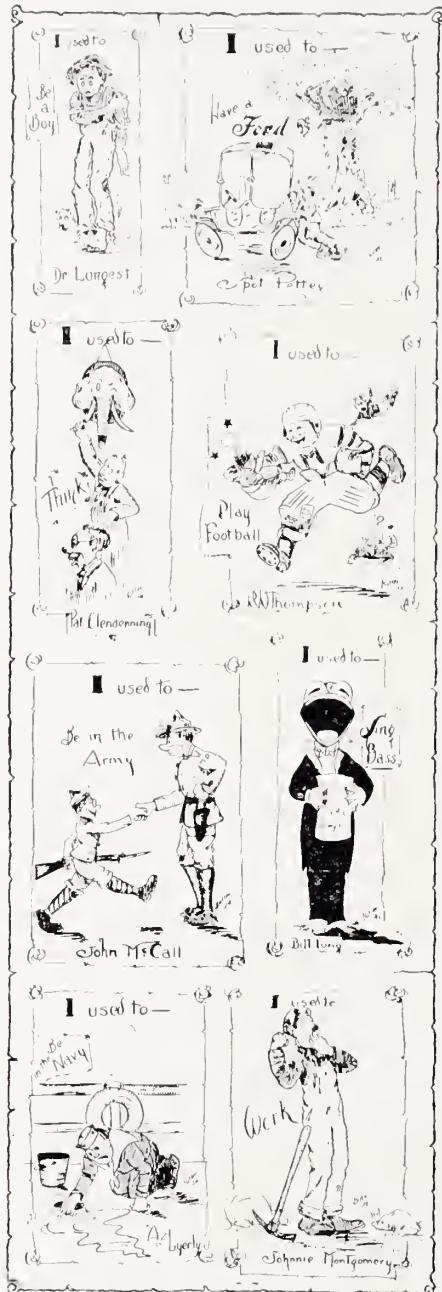

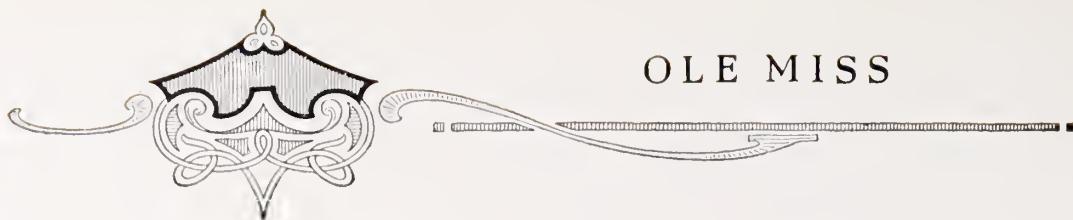

A reputation I never did have. Finder please return to George Campbell, Room 7, Taylor Hall, and receive blessing.

We are requested to announce that a new firm is to be located on the campus known as the "Caterers' Store." This store is under the management of Messrs. George & Morse, and as the name implies, they cater to themselves, and, according to them, there could be no better men to manage the place. They place themselves above the rest along that line.

NOTICE

People short in stature, I have what you want. I have at last discovered a formula that is guaranteed to make you tall over night. Any one wishing a trial package will write to Miss "Babe" Marquette, Box 10, University, Mississippi. Those desiring references, write to Shorty Webb, University, Miss.

The officers of this county made a daring raid the other night upon a still located in Alex Holladay's room. No one was arrested, but the officers are positive they know who the culprits are. Holladay has not been heard from since the raid.

I Used to Be Club

I used to be a prohibitionist—JUDGE HATHORN.
 I used to be a ladies' man—SPENCER WOOD.
 I used to be small—FRESHMAN GOBER.
 I used to be a ball player—DRANE LESTER.
 I used to feel important—T. J. TUBB.
 I used to be conceited—WIRT YERGER.
 I used to be an A. E. F. gas officer—DR.

 I used to be a student—DR. SWANN.
 I used to be a jellybean—CARADINE.
 I used to have a little sense—KENNEDY.
 I used to be good-looking—RED WHITTING-

 I used to be human—DR. HUNT.

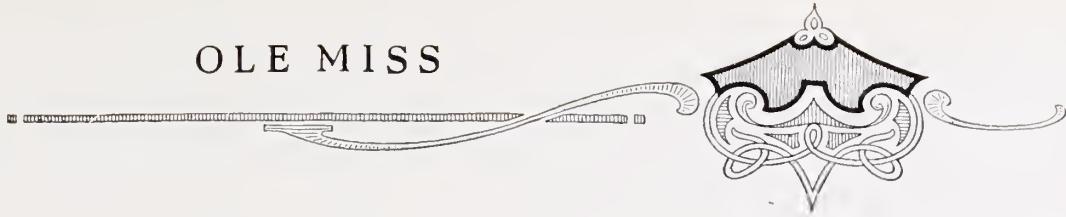

I used to be an interesting lecturer—DR.

I DON'T

My parents told me not to smoke,
 I don't.
 Or listen to a naughty joke,
 I don't.
 At pretty girls I must not wink,
 I don't.
 Or smile, or laugh, or even think
 About intoxicating drink,
 I don't.
 To dance or flirt is very wrong,
 I don't.
 Wild youth choose women, wine and song,
 I don't.
 I kiss no girls, not even one,
 I don't know how it is done,
 You wouldn't think I have much fun,
 I don't.

A PRAYER OF A SOPHOMORE

Now I lay me down to sleep
 With old Chaucer at my feet.
 Now I lay me down to dream
 Of old Chaucer and his scheme.
 Some had to take it only once;
 O dear Prof! I wish I were in that bunch.
 Some have had it twice and thrice,
 And I believe I will have it all my life.
 A few got by without a break,
 And I hope I can for my own sake.
 It is hard to learn, you know;
 That is why I study so.
 Now—if I die before I wake,
 You may know of Chaucer I could not take.

Bill Raley Says:

No wonder the hen gets discouraged, she never is able to find things where she lays them.

There are so many boot-leggers in Memphis they have to wear badges to keep from selling to each other.

Every time I go up in an elevator I am either up in the air or downcast.

Every time I see a circus I have the same feeling that I did when I first saw a patrol wagon—I was carried away with it.

After taking my girl to dinner, the theater, a supper afterwards and a taxi home, I did not kiss her good-night because I thought I had done enough for her.

The most popular after-Xmas song, dedicated to the fathers of large families, is "Ain't We Got Funds."

Kittens are not by themselves in being born blind these days, tigers are too.

It is mighty hard to get along without ears, arms, eyes, and legs, but it puzzles me a great deal how some folks get along without any brains.

Every woman who kneads dough is not shy of money.

A good complexion will often catch a man, but it takes a good disposition to hold him.

The best dressed woman does not always have the most clothes on.

There are some neighbors who are so tight they will not even lend you their ears.

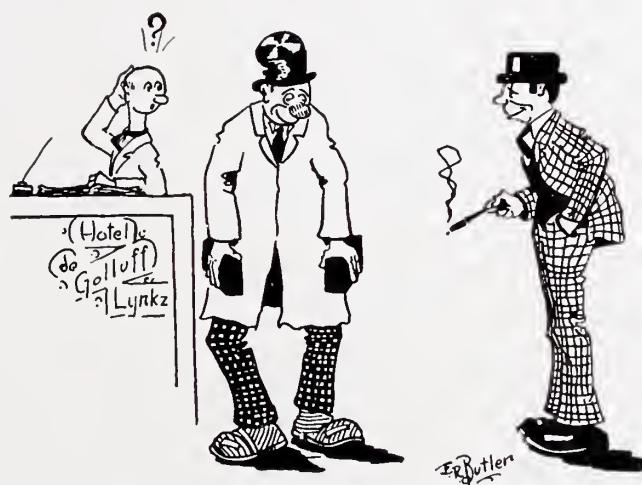

Whatever else a man gets after marriage, peace and quiet are two things he does not get.

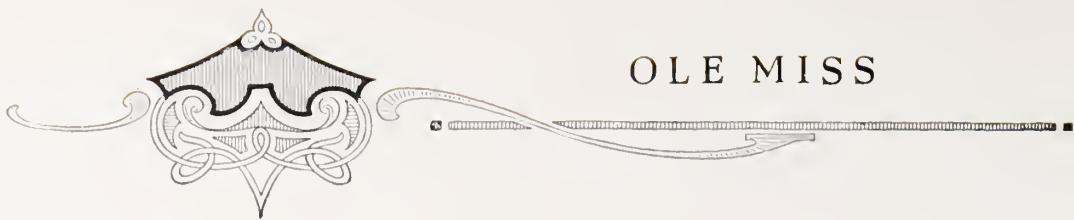

Some men may call a man a hero who looks a gun in the muzzle and says, "Shoot and be damned," but I call him an every-day damn fool.

High Life

Smith: "Say, what are you doing with all those bricks?"

Plunkett: "(Hic), I feel so light, (hic), that if I turn them a loose, (hic), I will hit the ceiling, (hic)."

A Few Reasons Why the Editor Goes Crazy

When will the Annual be out?
Is it going to be better than last year's?
Do you have to spend much time on it?
How many ads have you gotten? How many have you sold?
Have my honors gone in yet, I have some I want to add to them?
Did you use that horrible picture of me?
The "Ole Miss" must be prosperous, I see you have a new hat.
Is all the stuff going to be in on time?
The poem I wrote was not appropriate, is it too late to change it?
Does the Staff get anything for their services?
Can't I get someone to put their picture in with me?
How much are the Annuals going to cost?
Where does the amount left over go?
Would you be editor again next year?
How much do the publishers charge?

Letters

A. & M. COLLEGE, MISS.

DEAR BROTHER JAMES:

I have jes finished getting entered in this here school, and I want to tell you at the very beginning that it is scme place. The first day I got here, a gang of the boys what was here last year met me at the train and told me that they would be glad to help me along in my work, and for me to come up to thare room when I got settled and they wouldn't let any of the so-called wise birds beat me out of nothin. I went to thare room about a hour after I got here, and then they told me that all the old fellows would want to sell me a radiator ticket and a chapel seat, but they would let me have one cheaper than the others, and so I bought two chapel seats, one to put my peanuts in and the other for me to set in, and they charged me only $2.50 for the two, and when I saw what they wanted for a radiator ticket I most fell out, only $5.00 for the whole year, and they guarantee that I won't get cold if I set on the radiator. I don't know much about these here radiators, but I am about to catch on.

I haven't heard from you yet, but if you like the University of Ole Miss as well as I like this here school, you won't be sorry that you went thar. I went to my class in poultry this A. M., and you ought to see how many chickens they have settin, of course I knew how to handle a settin hen before I come up here, but some of the other boys wanted to pet her and they got thare hands pecked. I had another class in Pastureology this A. M., I think that is the way they spell it, but anyway it tells you how to feed a cow and what kind of grass to let her eat, it is good work, and this is the very place for me to learn all about sech as thet.

I had better quit, as I have to get up about five o'clock in the morning and go to my milking class. Write to me scmetime when you are not so busy, and tell me all about what kind of cows they use at the Ole Miss.

EZRA.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., September 20, 1921.

DEAR BROTHER:

Your very foolish and nonsensical epistle received this morning as I was preparing my toilet for breakfast. The unheard-of, the unwarranted presumption that you expostulated in your epistle has annoyed me considerably, and I shall endeavor to enlighten you on several phases of University activities. In the first place, we are not associated with cows in the slightest, we very seldom know that such a quadruped exists.

My course of study varies to a very magnanimous extent from that of yours. In the medical curriculum one must expect to encounter such subjects as Pathology, Histology, Materia Medica, and Minor Surgery, while, on the other extremity, I have matriculated in such studies as Pharmacology, Equity Jurisprudence, Constitutional Law, and Geology.

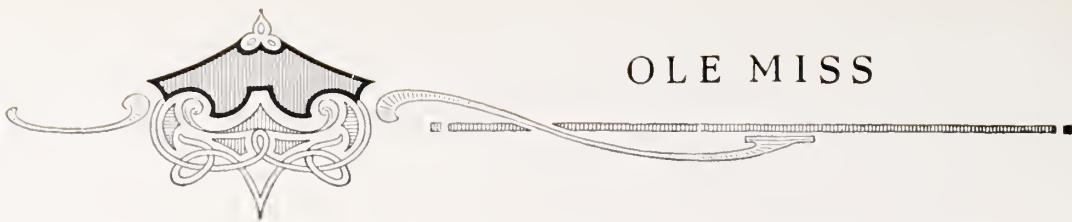

The social activities are nunerous and at times very monotonous, especially to one who has always spurned such things. We are always planning to go to a social function given by some of the most beautiful and attractive debutantes of the city of Oxford. We are constantly motoring with someone, and after each motor, we, as is customary, have a tea, or as they are more commonly called, a tea-dansant.

My dear brother, if any of the older men attempt to sell you any of the college property again, just tell them that you know everything that they say is a diabolical prevarication which is most superlative, and I feel sure that after they find out what you think of them they will cease annoying you in such a manner.

I am indeed delighted that you are so contented in your work, and, between milking, I shall appreciate a very long letter from you.

Fondly,

JAMES.

The Co-Ed

What's it that flirts from a delicate age,
Powdered and painted from the outside in?
What's it that tries to curl her frizzled hair,
And believes that to think is a mortal sin?
What's it that never is known to rage
O'er the problems of History and Freshman
Math?
What's it that lives on a diet of love,
Nor e'er dares to stray from the flowery path?
What's it that swears from the Heavens above
That of all her men friends, her sweetie's the best?
What's it that never to realities soars,
Or e'er to her clacking tongue gives rest?
What's that of all things bores,
With her empty talk and her foolish smile?
Why, surely you'd know from this picture fair—
That a co-ed's meant, you could bet your pile.

My Co-Ed

Here's to my girl,
My own,
Mine alone.
She drinks
And she bets,
And she smokes
Cigarettes,
And she goes out
Sometimes
And she forgets
That she's
My girl,
But she's
My own,
Mine alone.

Flowers

I saw him
Strolling along
The campus,
When a co-ed
Accosted him, asking
If he desired a
Nosegay, to which
He said, "Yes";
She was one of those
Superb brunettes, a
Young thing of
Twenty summers,
But was not as tall
As he, and
She stood upon her
Tiptoes to put the
Exquisite flower in
His lapel, and as she
Did so, her hair
Brushed against his Chin. Finally she
Held up her face to him
With a "Thank you."
'Twas then he admired the
Petulant lips that seemed
Made for a kiss; noting also
Her dark chestnut hair,
Eyes of amber fine,
With long eyelashes;
A flower she was, in
All her radiant glory—
But he did not k'ss her,
He was an
Aged professor.

THIRD FLOOR NEWS

Dr. Kennon, our capable instructor in Physics, is at present receiving the congratulations of the faculty and student body. He has recently secured a patent for an ingenious invention, and besides the personal gain he will receive, science has been materially advanced. This invention is a mechanical contrivance that is known technically as the boiler-plate blanket.

It has been estimated by the School of Commerce in the basement of the Peabody building that the boiler-plate blanket will save more lives in the next year than all the doctors that graduate from here in the next century. This ingenious device is a metal bed-cover made of the highest grade of steel, with a head-piece of the same material attached. It may be folded and carried from place to place in any ordinary two-ton truck. It was invented to protect the innocent sleeper from harm in case the home brew exploded in the middle of the night. The shattered glass falls harmlessly on this implement of safety and scarcely arouses the sleeper. Not only will this arrangement aid humanity by making the home safer and more secure, but it will lower the life insurance rates to a noticeable extent.

We wish to repair the omission of the name of Mr. "Doc" McRae from the article on the organization of the Ole Miss Put and Take Team. The omission was made at the request of Mr. McRae, but he is too prominent a "taker" to be so omitted. We all know and admire Mr. McRae as an influential member of the firm of "Doc and Frog," and we feel he well deserves the honor thus done him.
